

Kimberly Chainey

Kimberly Y. Chainey is Associate General Counsel, M&A for Avis Budget Group (“ABG”), a leading global provider of vehicle rental services. Ms. Chainey joined ABG in 2014, and is currently responsible for leading legal support for Global M&A, Innovation and Strategy including ABG’s key mobility initiatives for connected and autonomous vehicles. She also leads the Latin America legal team.

Prior to her role at ABG, Ms. Chainey was Associate General Counsel, International, at Hershey’s, a global confectionery company, where she led the international legal function. Ms. Chainey held various roles of increasing responsibility at Hershey’s including, Associate General Counsel for Global Operations and AEMEA (Asia, Europe, Middle East and Africa), and Senior Counsel, Global Supply Chain. Ms. Chainey joined Hershey’s in 2007 following positions as an Associate in Wolf Block’s Real Estate department, specializing in large-scale development projects, and as an Associate in Morgan Lewis’ Business and Finance department specializing in venture capital, private equity and mergers and acquisitions.

Ms. Chainey holds a bachelor’s degree from Harvard Radcliffe College, and a JD/MBA from the University of Pennsylvania Law School and the Wharton School of Business.