Mental Health Professionals Applying the Therapeutic Power of Play

31st Annual

Association for Play Therapy International Conference

October 7-12, 2014

Association for Play Therapy (APT)

APT is a national professional society established in 1982 to advance play therapy and play therapy practice, instruction, and supervision. For more information regarding our mission, programs, member benefits, or to register online, visit www.a4pt.org. A complete list of individual workshop objectives is available online also.

2014 Program Overview

APT welcomes more than 900 counselors, psychologists, social workers, marriage and family therapists, and other mental health professionals to Houston for the 31st Annual APT International conference.

- Dr. Bruce Perry, a Senior Fellow of the Child Trauma Academy, and an international authority in the world of child trauma and brain function will deliver the opening Keynote Address on Friday, October 10!

- The opportunities are endless when you craft your own program! Choose from over 60 educational workshops, (both full and half-day) and earn up to 37.5 hours of continuing education.
- New this year – we have added a poster session to showcase research in the field of play therapy.
- Learn more about play therapy research, theories, and techniques, tailored to all levels of experience.
- Enjoy mingling with Exhibitors and other play therapists as you learn about a variety of products available to you.

Key Conference Notes

- Curriculum primarily includes three- and six-hour workshops with some shorter evening workshops and small discussion groups available.
- Handouts will be available to attendees prior to the conference.
- The Awards breakfast on Saturday is a time to network with peers and acknowledge award recipients.

Workshop Levels

Use these criteria to select workshops that commensurate with your training and experiential levels:

- F Beginner/Foundational workshops needed to responsibly practice play therapy, e.g. ethics, basic theories, playroom set-up and materials, etc.
- I General Interest workshops for registrants with solid play therapy foundational training and experience
- A Advanced workshops for registrants who have earned 100 or more hours of play therapy training
- DG-A Discussion groups for registrants with RPT/S credentials only and limited to 25 attendees.
- DG-I Discussion groups open to all attendees and limited to 25 attendees.

Explore...Experience...Connect...

Networking Opportunities in Houston!

Come prepared to network with others that share a passion for play therapy! Explore all that Houston has to offer with members and friends as you enrich your conference experience.

“Join Me!” Networking Dinner

Looking to meet and network with other play therapists? Want a good place to dine? Great news, the “Join Me” dinners are back! Sign up and attend one (or more) of these networking dinners, Tuesday thru Saturday nights. A veteran APT member will lead groups to a different local restaurant each night (within walking distance). Everyone is invited to join, as we go “Dutch Treat” and explore the local Houston way of life! Reservations required, so please stop by the APT registration booth before 3pm to sign up.

Things to see and do in Houston!

America’s fourth-largest city is a cosmopolitan destination, filled with world-class dining, arts, shopping and nightlife!

Attached to the Westin hotel is the stunning Houston Galleria. The Galleria features over 350 stores and restaurants. With its stunning architecture, exceptional store mix and distinctive style of entertainment, The Houston Galleria has established itself as the best shopping and tourist destination in Houston with over 30 million annual visitors. Set beneath spectacular glass atriums, The Galleria also features an impressive ice rink open to the public!

If you want to venture further out, spend the day exploring the Museum District, the country’s fourth largest, with 18 cultural powerhouses set within blocks of one another or head down to Space Center Houston, the official visitor’s center for NASA’s Johnson Space Center. Later on, grab a bite in one of dozens of award-winning restaurants, or hang out with the cool kids on Washington Avenue. There’s always something to do in this Southern hospitality meets urban chic city!

Space Center Houston: This unparalleled exhibit features spacesuits dating back to the first American trip to space and a wall that contains portraits and crew photos of every U.S. astronaut who has flown in space. Credits: Greater Houston Convention and Visitors Bureau
