

Workshops, Facilitations and Keynotes: the FAQs

What's so special about AmeriCorps Alums workshops?

AmeriCorps Alums provides interactive workshops that are engaging and fun for participants. Our focus is on real-world skills and resources that can be utilized immediately.

What kinds of workshops are offered?

Our menu of workshops includes topics for a variety of audiences, ranging from corpsmembers to program directors to community partners. The most commonly-requested workshops are:

- Life After AmeriCorps
- Making the Most of your Segal Education Award
- Tapping Into the AmeriCorps Alums Network to Support Corpsmember Recruitment and Retention
- Integrating AmeriCorps Alums Resources Into Your Member Training
- Developing a Statewide Network of AmeriCorps Alums Chapters

Can the workshops be customized?

Absolutely. Our facilitation team will be happy to discuss your specific participants and their needs. We'll tailor the workshops to meet your specific learning objectives.

"I was amazed at how much the group accomplished in a short amount of time. The small group discussions added a local flavor to the topic, and made the workshop very enjoyable."

*- workshop participant,
Washington, DC*

What is the cost of each workshop?

The cost is influenced by several factors, including the time required and the distance traveled to the workshop location. Generally speaking, the facilitation fee is based upon the federal rate of $544 per day, plus preparation time and travel expenses. Simply request a facilitation proposal, and we'll outline the costs for your specific event.
