Leading the way for nursing professional development specialists to innovate and educate in today’s healthcare environment.

Aspire...TO EXCEL

PROGRAM BROCHURE

ANPD ANNUAL CONVENTION
July 14–17, 2015
The Mirage / Las Vegas, Nevada

Workshops / July 13–14, 2015
Welcome to the ANPD Annual Convention where you have the opportunity to experience creative, cutting-edge educational offerings for the nursing professional development (NPD) specialist. Come prepared to obtain tools that will motivate you to “Aspire to Excel”!

The ANPD Annual Convention provides you with the means to promote the NPD specialty through identification of best practices, research evidence and outcomes measurement. Join in and customize your schedule to include sessions on Leadership, Career Development, Professional Partnerships, Evidence-based Practice/Research, Technology and Nursing Professional Development. Have fun exploring different choices to enhance your professional development and practice.

Education tracks are divided into several different categories and meet the needs of novice, competent and expert NPD specialists. Many opportunities are available to excel in obtaining knowledge and ideas for change in our current healthcare environment. Be sure to choose options from the pre-convention workshops, keynote addresses, concurrent sessions, and poster presentations when designing your convention schedule. See page 4 for more information to help plan your convention schedule.

Multiple opportunities are also provided to network with professional development experts and peers. You will be able to develop new acquaintances and friendships that will be invaluable in your NPD journey. Sign up for our Speed Networking event and find your perfect match in NPD!

Finally, be sure to allow time to visit the exhibit hall to explore the latest products and resources available. Our vendors have some exciting products that support our professional practice in new and thought-provoking ways.

While enjoying all the ANPD Annual Convention has to offer, don't forget to allow time to explore the sights, sounds and shows that make Las Vegas the glittering jewel of the desert.

I look forward to experiencing personal growth and invigoration in Las Vegas with you!

2015 ANPD Content Planning Committee Chair
FEATUED SPEAKERS

Jerry Mansfield, PhD, RN

Dr. Mansfield serves as Chief Nursing Officer, University Hospital and the Richard M. Ross Heart Hospital of The Ohio State University Wexner Medical Center, Columbus, Ohio. He has 30 years of progressive leadership experience in both for-profit/non-profit and inpatient/outpatient settings. Dr. Mansfield is also a Robert Wood Johnson Executive Nurse Fellow (2005 Cohort).

Nancy Spector, PhD, RN, FAAN

Dr. Spector graduated from the University of Wisconsin, Madison, with her BSN; the University of California San Francisco for her MSN; and Rush College of Nursing in Chicago with her PhD. Before joining the National Council of State Boards (NCSBN) of Nursing in 2002, Dr. Spector was a faculty member at Loyola University’s School of Nursing in Chicago, where she taught at the undergraduate and graduate levels. Her research was in palliative care symptom control. Currently she is the Director of Regulatory Innovations at the NCSBN. Dr. Spector was the principal investigator on a NCSBN’s multisite transition to practice study, and she was a consultant on the National Simulation Study. She has worked on a number of other initiatives, including the regulatory implications of social media, innovations in nursing education, the future of nursing program approval and the regulatory issues in distance learning programs. Dr. Spector presents and publishes nationally and internationally on regulatory issues in nursing education.

Julia Aucoin, DNS, RN-BC, CNE

Dr. Aucoin is a longtime member of ANPD with 35 years of practice as a NPD specialist. She currently serves as the Nurse Research Scientist for Duke University Health System and served as the Principal Investigator for the ANPD study, Nursing Professional Development Organizational Value Demonstration Project. This combination promises to bring us an informative and provocative look at the question of the value our practice brings to organizations. As an educator, Julie maintains certification in both NPD and academic education and will support ANPD by disseminating the findings of the NPD Organizational Value Study widely.

Joan Warren, PhD, RN-BC, NEA-BC

Dr. Warren has over 25 years in nursing professional development. She has been an active member in ANPD since 1994 and is honored today to be serving as the ANPD president. Dr. Warren is currently Director of Nursing Research and Magnet at MedStar Franklin Square Medical Center, Baltimore, Maryland and is adjunct assistant professor at the University of Maryland School of Nursing. Dr. Warren is the principle investigator for the NPD Role Delineation Study and a co-investigator for the NPD Organizational Value Demonstration Project.

Mary Harper, PhD, RN-BC

Dr. Harper is the Director of Nursing Professional Development for the Association for Nursing Professional Development (ANPD) and a former member of the Board of Directors. She is a co-chair of the workgroup currently revising the NPD Scope and Standards of Practice due for release in 2016. Dr. Harper is a co-investigator for both the NPD Organizational Value Demonstration Project and the NPD Role Delineation Study.

Kari Schmidt, MS, RN-BC

Ms. Schmidt is nationally recognized as a consultant in nursing professional development and nursing leadership. She is passionate about the transformational leadership of nursing professional development. Ms. Schmidt is widely recognized for her dynamic and inspiring presentations. Ms. Schmidt is a past-president of ANPD. She teaches NPD Certification Preparation Courses and co-authored the NPD Certification Preparation Study Guide released by ANPD in 2014.

Patty Wooten, BSN, RN, CIC

Ms. Wooten is a nurse-humorist, international speaker and leader in the field of therapeutic humor. Ms. Wooten has published three books and more than 50 articles about humor and laughter. In 2001, she received the Lifetime Achievement Award for her contribution to the discipline of therapeutic humor.

PRE-CONVENTION WORKSHOPS

Nursing Professional Development Certification Preparation Course
Monday, July 13
8:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.
Tuesday, July 14
8:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.
Greg Durkin, MEd, RN-BC
This live 2-day, 16 contact hour Nursing Professional Development (NPD) Certification Preparation Course prepares participants for the ANCC exam. The course is not only beneficial for NPD specialists preparing for the certification exam, but is also a great introduction to nursing professional development for those new to the specialty.

ROI by Design
Monday, July 13
9:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.
Laura Paramoure, EdD
The purpose of the session is to demonstrate how Return on Investment (ROI) of education/ training is measured and evaluated through a new model that connects instructional design, creating behavior changes, enhancing organizational learning, and results in justifiable outcomes. Attendees will come away from the session with insights into how to implement this model in their organizations, examples where ROI is being measured in progressive organizations, and the implications of this work to both practice and research.

Creative Teaching Strategies
Monday, July 13
1:00 p.m. – 5:00 p.m.
Michele Deck, MEd, BSN, RN, LCCE, FACCE
Are you searching for some new and creative ways to teach your learners? This session provides new hands on teaching strategies for difficult concepts that will assure that everyone “Gets it.” Learn about flow theory and how it relates to your teaching. Explore ideas to integrate simple technology into how you teach and experience activities that hone critical thinking skills. Come prepared to be an active participant throughout the afternoon.

The Ultimate Workshop on Competency
Monday, July 13
1:00 p.m. – 5:00 p.m.
Donna Wright, MS, RN
This workshop gives you everything you ever wanted to know about competency assessment. Learn about the Wright Competency Model that focuses on ownership, empowerment, and accountability. Give yourself a fresh new perspective on the whole competency assessment process!

Continuing Nursing Education (CNE) Primer: A to Z
Monday, July 13
1:00 p.m. – 5:00 p.m.
Pam Dickerson, PhD, RN-BC, FAAN
This workshop provides an in-depth analysis of the nuts and bolts of developing, implementing, and evaluating a continuing nursing education activity within the framework of the international ANCC accreditation program criteria. Specific items discussed include accreditation program language and criteria, strategies for addressing learner needs within the context of an outcomes-based framework, and “how-to” guides for developing learning activities. Come develop tools and identify resources to successfully implement quality CNE activities in their own work settings.

The Future of NPD Practice: Discovering New Possibilities
Monday, July 13
1:00 p.m. – 5:00 p.m.
Dora Bradley, PhD, RN-BC, FAAN
Are you ready for the NPD role of the future? Do you need to update your own competency portfolio? Then this workshop is for you. Bring Your Own Device (BYOD) and discover new possibilities for NPD practice. Using a “flipped classroom” concept, learners will receive pre-work to explore prior to the workshop. The overall goal of this workshop is to provide an opportunity to discover new skills and knowledge so you can EXCEL in NPD practice.

Getting Started in NPD: The Staff Education Process
Tuesday, July 14
8:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.
Bette Case Di Leonardi, PhD, RN-BC
Come prepared to actively explore and practice each phase of the staff education process.
Writing for Publication: From Idea to Finished Product
Tuesday, July 14
8:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.
Susan Bindon, DNP, RN-BC
Kari Schmidt, MS, RN-BC
This workshop is for those interested in getting started as published authors. It provides publication tips, encouragement, and practice time for novice and/or yet-to-be published authors. Topics include academic versus scientific or professional writing styles, choice of relevant topics, and targeting of a specific audience. Participants learn about the peer-review publication process, author guidelines, and editor expectations. Learners also have the opportunity to share their own manuscript ideas.

Simulation 101: Tips, Tools & Techniques to Excel
Tuesday, July 14
8:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.
Gail Johnson, RN, C-NIC
Krista Kipper, BSN, RN, CHSE
Simulation is increasingly integrated into orientation and CNE. This interactive workshop provides concepts & best practices related to designing, facilitating, and debriefing effective simulations regardless of the equipment available. Participants have opportunities to practice and apply these concepts.

Interactive Online Education
Tuesday, July 14
8:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.
Jobeth Pilcher, EdD, RN-BC
How can we engage an audience we cannot see? What are best practices for online learning? BYOD (bring your own device) as we explore the virtual learning environment!

Excel at Program and Project Management Skills for Organizational Innovation
Tuesday, July 14
1:00 p.m. – 5:00 p.m.
Charlene Smith, DNS, MSEd, WHNP, RN-BC, CNE, ANEF
NPD specialists need the skill to manage programs and projects for organizational innovation. This workshop introduces participants to project management processes and tools used to sustain programs.

Hedge Your Bets: Developing Your Social Media Toolbox
Tuesday, July 14
1:00 p.m. – 5:00 p.m.
Mary Harper, PhD, RN-BC
Meredith Daniels, MPS
Gain the edge by learning to use the following social media tools: Google docs, Twitter, Facebook, LinkedIn, and Pinterest. BYOD (Bring your devices): laptop (required), tablet (optional) and smartphone (optional). Develop a social media plan to augment your teaching and meet your professional needs.

In Pursuit of the Passion for Evidence
Tuesday, July 14
1:00 p.m. – 5:00 p.m.
Jennifer Rheingans, PhD, RN-BC
Come spend an afternoon learning how to inspire your nursing colleagues to value and use evidence-based practice. This informative session empowers you with the knowledge, skills, and attitudes to be successful in facilitating all aspects of an evidence-based practice project, including implementation!

NPD Manager Boot Camp
Tuesday, July 14
1:00 p.m. – 5:00 p.m.
Lynette Dahlman, MSN, RN-BC
In this session, participants focus on the skills and competencies necessary for an NPD leader to meet the challenges of a rapidly-evolving healthcare landscape. Integrating leadership principles and strategies, NPD standards of practice and other valuable skills and resources, the NPD leader will leave feeling energized and ready to tackle and conquer the next challenge. This course is equally valuable to the new leader as well as the established leader looking for an update.
OPENING SESSION
Tuesday, July 14
6:45 p.m. – 8:15 p.m.

Ensuring Relevance in a Complex Healthcare World
Jerry Mansfield, PhD, RN
In today’s healthcare marketplace – rapid change demands innovative solutions to longstanding problems. What do leaders need to do to make sure they deliver on what the customer demands? Who really is the customer in healthcare? Are you ready to create a preferred future for your team and your organization?

KEYNOTE SESSION
Wednesday, July 15
8:15 a.m. – 10:00 a.m.

Transition to Practice: Results of NCSBN’s Multisite Study of Hospital Programs
Nancy Spector, PhD, RN, FAAN
Hear about the Phase I results of the National Council of State Boards of Nursing’s multisite, randomized, longitudinal Transition to Practice study. This study was conducted in 105 hospitals in three states using an evidence-based program and provides substantial evidence for hospitals incorporating transition to practice programs.

GENERAL SESSION
Wednesday, July 15
10:45 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

Who Are You? Articulating NPD’s Role and Value
Julia Auc Mock, DNS, RN-BC, CNE
Joan Warren, PhD, RN-BC, NEA-BC
Mary Harper, PhD, RN-BC
In the current healthcare environment, it’s critical that NPD specialists are able to fulfill their role in order to demonstrate both value and worth. The results of recent ANPD research studies, The NPD Role Delineation Study and the NPD Organizational Value Demonstration Project, will be shared. Be prepared to see how you and your organization measure up.

CONCURRENT SESSION I
Wednesday, July 15
1:30 p.m. – 2:30 p.m.

S101: Excel at all Levels of Nursing through Mentoring
(Career Development, Competent Level)
Sonya Feng, MSN, RN
Grissel Hernandez, MPH, BSN, RN, HNB-BC
Ginger Seal, MSN, RN
Kick-it-up a notch! Acquire the knowledge and tools to design, implement and manage a nurse mentoring program for all levels of nursing.

S102: Tipping the Sacred Cow: Applying Change Theory to Implement Bedside Report
(Evidence-based Practice & Nursing Research, Expert Level)
Katie Schulz, MSN, RN, OCN, CHPN

(Nursing Professional Development, Competent Level)
Alvin Jeffery, MSN, RN-BC, CCRN, FNP-BC
Beth Mueller, MSN, Med, RN
Taryn Stumpf, MSN, RN, CCRN
Discover an innovative model for regularly assessing competency in both acute and critical care environments.

S105: What You Learn in Vegas Doesn’t Stay in Vegas: Creating Educational Partnerships to Promote Professional Practice
(Professional Development Partnerships, Competent Level)
Marie Kaye, MS, RN
Design a comprehensive network of resources to assist staff in progressing from pre-licensure to advanced nursing practice.

S106: Transition to Practice: Measuring Success of High-fidelity Simulation
(Technology/Informatics/Simulation, Competent Level)
Lynne Delfosse, BSN, RN
Mary Trudell, MS, RN
Learn about a healthcare system’s journey to measure the impact of simulation on new nurses’ clinical practice.

CONCURRENT SESSION II
Wednesday, July 15
3:15 p.m. – 4:15 p.m.

S107: Operation Certification: A Strategic Approach Towards Promoting Specialty Certification in a Hospital
(Career Development/Mentoring Leadership, Competent Level)
Mary Anne McNamee, MA, BSN, RN-BC, CCRN
Karen Buckley, MS, RN-BC, PCRN
Launette Woolf, EdD, DNP, RN-BC
The NPD specialist plays an innovative and collaborative role in developing strategies to promote specialty certification and increase hospital certification rates.

S108: Interventions that Impact Nurse Preceptors’ Professional Development: A Systematic Review
(Evidence-based Practice & Nursing Research, Expert Level)
Maryann Windey, PhD, MSN, RN-BC
Carol Lawrence, PhD, RN-OB, CBC
Kimberly Guthrie, PhD, MSN, RN
Debra Weeks, DNP, RN-BC
The results of a systematic review of literature provide evidence for interventions to develop preceptors.

S109: Manage the Story, Manage the Change: The Neuroscience Behind Storytelling as the Shortest Distance to Change
(Leadership, Competent Level)
Mark Beck, DNP, MSN, BS, RN-BC
Recent advances in neuroscience support storytelling as the leading method for evoking change in receivers. Learn to manage your story.
S110: Flipped Classrooms for Active Teaching/Learning in Nursing Professional Development
(Nursing Professional Development, Competent Level)
Charlene Smith, DNS, MSEd, WHNP, RN-BC, CNE, ANEF
Apply the flipped classroom as a pedagogical strategy for active learning in the professional development setting.

S111: Bridging the Theory-practice Gap: Maximizing Student Nurse Clinical Conference Sessions
(Professional Development Partnerships, Competent Level)
Elizabeth Colbeth, MS, RN-BC
Augment essential pediatric content in the clinical setting by standardizing the clinical conference curriculum.

S112: Bringing Simulation to the Bedside: A Practical Approach
(Technology/Informatics/Simulation, Competent Level)
Andrea Anderle, MSN, RNC
Mobile simulation offers an efficient way for interprofessional teams to practice skills, communication and teamwork.

CONCURRENT SESSION III
Thursday, July 16
10:15 a.m. – 11:15 a.m.

S201: Succession Planning: Nurse Leaders Learning from Leaders to Promote Workforce Excellence
(Career Development/Mentoring Leadership, Expert Level)
Kim Tharp-Barrie, DNP, RN, SANE
Tracy Williams, DNP, RN
The Nurse Leadership Intensive was developed to enhance nurse leaders’ performance in their current role and prepare them for advanced roles within the organization and the community.

S202: Flipping the Classroom: Nursing Practice Orientation Rapid Cycle Redesign
(Evidence-based Practice & Nursing Research, Competent Level)
Sarah Lesniak, MS, BSN, RN-BC
Erin Sugarman, MS, RN
Stephanie VonBacho, MSN, RN, CCRN
Using the “flipped classroom” methodology, nursing orientation was redesigned to facilitate competency development.

S203: Committee of the Whole: Professional Development Provided by Interdisciplinary Education Committee
(Leadership, Competent Level)
Anne Correll, MHA, BSN, RN, CCRN
Danny Fraley, RN
Prepare to start an interdisciplinary education committee in your healthcare setting!

S204: When Doing Wrong Feels So Right: Normalization of Deviance
(Nursing Professional Development, Competent Level)
Mary Price, MSN, RN-C, NEA-BC
Teresa Williams, MSN, RN
Nurses are proud of their work-arounds. Discover how normalization of deviance undermines patient safety.

S205: Interagency Simulation Collaborative: Industry, Schools and a Training Fund
(Professional Development Partnerships, Expert Level)
Janine Buik, MBA, BSCHC, BSN, RN, OCN
Karen Paulsen, MSN, RN, ACNS-BC
Learn how an interagency collaborative project closed gaps in simulation knowledge.

S206: Leveraging Today’s Technology to Meet the Needs of Today’s Workforce
(Technology/Informatics/Simulation, Competent Level)
Stacey Brull, DNP, RN, NE-BC
Susan Finlayson, DNP, RN, NE-BC
Examine various tools that can be used by even the most technologically challenged to create powerful learning experiences.

CONCURRENT SESSION IV
Thursday, July 16
11:30 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.

S207: Coaching and Consulting: The Synergy of Skills
(Career Development/Mentoring Leadership, Expert Level)
Kari Schmidt, MS, RN-BC, ACC
Skills of influence are essential for the expert educator. Harness the power of integrating consulting and coaching skills to meet the complex needs in healthcare environments.

S208: To Read or Not to Read: Critically Reviewing Evidence for NPD Practice
(Evidence-based Practice & Nursing Research, Competent Level)
Susan Bindon, DNP, RN-BC
Interested in being a more sophisticated reader and consumer of evidence? Apply practical terms, tools, and concepts!

S209: Inspiring Innovation: Creating the PRN Clinical Nurse Educator Role
(Leadership, Competent Level)
Katherine Pakieser-Reed, PhD, RN
Gain tips on creating a PRN Clinical Nurse Educator role to reduce service gaps and increase NPD staff satisfaction while remaining budget neutral.
