SESSION LOCATIONS

Please note: the locations of all individual sessions will be included in the paper program that you will receive when you pick up your registration materials at the meeting.

To save on printing costs, the program will be available only online prior to the meeting; with the exception of plenary sessions, the online version does not include session locations.

In addition, locations for sessions on the first evening (December 27) will be posted in the registration area.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT REGISTRATION

Please note: it costs $40 less to register in advance than to register at the meeting. The advance registration rates are the same as last year, but the additional cost of registering at the meeting has increased.

Online advance registration at www.apaonline.org is available until December 26.

Williams College, in conjunction with the John William Miller Fellowship Fund, announces essay prizes and research fellowships to advance the study of the philosophy of John William Miller.

Essay Prizes
An annual prize of $5,000 is offered for the best essay—already published in or under review with a recognized journal—on some aspect of Miller’s philosophy. Authors are welcome to send a letter of application with the manuscript of the essay to the Miller Fund.

Research Fellowships
Candidates working on a book-length project addressing Miller’s philosophy are encouraged to send applications (including a proposal, CV, writing samples, and no fewer than two letters of recommendation) to the Miller Fund for awards up to $45,000.

Complete information on essay prizes and fellowships, as well as the basic texts of and secondary commentary on Miller’s philosophy, can be found at the Website for the Fellowship Fund: http://sites.williams.edu/miller/

Send inquiries to: Librarian, Williams College, Williamstown MA 01267.
Applications can also be sent electronically courtesy of Sue Galli
(Susan.G.Galli@williams.edu).

Moral Problems in Higher Education
EDITED BY Steven M. Cahn

“Moral Problems in Higher Education brings together essays on a wide range of central ethical issues in higher education and organizes them in a way that clearly presents the various aspects of the on-going philosophical analysis and debate of each issue. Some of the essays are classics. Others are superb examples of the power of philosophical analysis to elucidate complex topics. All are excellent.”—Peter J. Markie,

The American Philosophical Association Centennial Series

Edited by Richard T. Hull

This multi-volume series contains the major addresses to the profession delivered by each president of the American Philosophical Association in its first 100 years. It is a Who’s Who of 20th-century American philosophy, and includes a biographical sketch, career information, and photograph with each paper. Volume 11, edited by John Shook, will contain original essays that assess the enduring impact of these addresses. Past presidents include John Dewey, Donald Davidson, Philippa Foot, Nelson Goodman, Carl Hempel, Sidney Hook, Herbert Marcuse, Ernest Nagel, W.V.O. Quine, John Rawls, Hans Reichenbach, Richard Rorty, Josiah Royce, Wilfrid Sellars, Gregory Vlastos, Alfred North Whitehead, and many other major figures.

Each volume will be available for download to mobile devices, download as a PDF, and in print on demand. The entire series will also be available online.

Volume 1: Presidential Addresses 1901–1910
Volume 2: Presidential Addresses 1911–1920
Volume 3: Presidential Addresses 1921–1930
Volume 4: Presidential Addresses 1931–1940
Volume 5: Presidential Addresses 1941–1950
Volume 6: Presidential Addresses 1951–1960
