SAFCEC NEWS

COURSE ON THE "NEW" FIDIC CONTRACTS

SAFCEC will present a one-day course on the "new" FIDIC Contracts in Bedfordview on Wednesday, 12 March 2003. The "new" FIDIC (1999) contract documents represent a radical change in both approach and content to the previous editions and other contract conditions. Not only the contractor, but both the Employer and the Engineer are vitally affected by these changes and these new and ever more widely used conditions deserve close attention and analysis before being put to use.

PROMOTION OF ACCESS TO INFORMATION ACT, 2000

The Promotion of Access to Information Act requires all public and private bodies to compile manuals.
(©www.safcec.org.za)

THE RIGHT TO KNOW

One of the main principles embodied in current occupational health & safety legislation is the so-called "right to know" of employees and the employer's duty to keep his employees informed of hazards in the workplace.
(©www.safcec.org.za)

SAFCEC SAFETY MANAGEMENT SERVICES EXTENDED IN 2003

Members may be pleased to hear that Ray Strydom, who has been employed by SAFCEC over the last two years to provide the abovementioned services on a limited basis, has now been engaged to provide these services on a much more extended basis.

NEWS FLASHES FOR ARCHITECTS

Please join the President and committee of the PIA on Tuesday 25th February 2003 at 16h30 for 17h00 at the offices in Barclay Square as we celebrate the launch of our own unique website; find out a bit more about BEPMEDS and say farewell to Debbie Bredenkamp. RSVP's are essential and can be made by calling the office on 012 341-3204 / 5.

The Goldfields Techno Library at the Pretoria Technikon has made space available for the Architectural Archives. This facility opens its doors for business on Monday 17 February 2003. The work of the late Hellmut Stauch as well as the work of the late Karel Jooste has been donated to the Architectural Archives. The archives will serve to preserve and make available architectural documentation, models, photographs, memorabilia, etc. to the profession and formal students. Please keep your donation of documents and documentation rolling. It is better to preserve information for posterity in an organized fashion than to keep it stashed away in some remote corner of a buitekamer where it will eventually decay before being trashed. Please contact Harry Benade at 012 318-5252 or Phillip Crafford 083 268 1183.

~~ SANLAM RESTORATION AWARD FOR 2003 ~

Applications are being awaited for the Sanlam Restoration Award for 2003. The property concerned must have been provisionally protected or must be a provincial or national heritage site, and must be completed by 31 March 2004. Application forms are available from the office (unfortunately they are not electronically available); these forms can be posted. Closing date for submissions is 13 June 2003.

NEWS FOR ESTATE AGENTS AND HOME OWNERS

Security must be seen to be believed

In a market where suburban homes must increasingly compete with properties in secure complexes and gated estates, good - and visible - security measures are key in attracting buyers.
 (©www.property24.co.za)

Immigration rules must be clear, says Institute

The Institute of Estate Agents (IEASA) has called on the Department of Home Affairs to issue an official guide, in layman's language, to the new Immigration Act and Regulations.
 (©www.property24.co.za)

Agencies explore fee-for-service model

If there's one thing guaranteed to raise the heat in a roomful of estate agents, it's a discussion about commission rates or fees. But at least the idea that the fee-for-service model might be a viable alternative to the commission system is no longer taboo.
 (©www.property24.co.za)

Demand falls, but prices keep rising

Research by Property 24 shows how home prices have continued to climb, despite rising interest rates and declining demand - but suggests that the situation may be reversed this year.
 (©www.property24.co.za)

Triple tax whammy on CC-owned properties

It is now inadvisable to buy a property-owning company, CC or trust instead of the property itself - or to register a newly purchased residential property in anything but your own name, thanks to new legislation in effect since December.
 (©www.property24.co.za)

10 things your builder won't tell you

Building a home or renovating your property is not for the faint-hearted. Builders and homeowners seldom part company friends and, in the process, you can make enemies of your neighbours too. "Be prepared to be ripped off," is the refrain from disillusioned homeowners who have had nasty experiences.

SPECIAL REPORTS

Reasonable skill and care and fitness for purpose

In general, a designer is expected to use reasonable skill and care. A higher duty may be imposed however in some situations. Design and build contracts can impose a higher standard than reasonable skill and care. This obligation resembles the seller's duty to supply goods which are reasonably fit for their intended purpose.

DID YOU HEAR ?

The following were answers provided by 6th graders during history tests.

1. Solomon had three hundred wives and seven hundred porcupines.
2. The Greeks were a highly sculptured people, and without them we wouldn't have history. The Greeks also had myths. A myth is a female moth.
3. Socrates was a famous Greek teacher who went around giving people advice. They killed him. Socrates died from an overdose of wedlock. After his death, his career suffered a dramatic decline.
4. Sir Francis Drake circumcised the world with a 100-foot clipper.
5. Moses led the Hebrew slaves to the Red Sea where they made unleavened bread, which is presented by Gigi Fenster & Chris Binnington.
