IT GIANT BDPA FORMS ALLIANCE WITH GOLD SPONSOR DIVERSITYCOMM, INC.

LARGO, MD. – Fortifying its sustained alliance with Gold Sponsor DiversityComm, Inc., Information Technology Giant Black Data Processing Associates (BDPA) is eager to renew its 2016 partnership DiversityComm, Inc., at BDPA’s 38th Annual National Technology Conference and Career Fair on August 9-13, 2016, at the Westin Peachtree Plaza Hotel, 210 Peachtree Street, Atlanta, Georgia. BDPA’s Career Fair is free and open to the public. Visit bdpa.org for more information.

Recognized in the industry for its more than 25 years of professional expertise in all aspects of business and employment that ensures equal opportunity, diversity and inclusion advertising, DiversityComm, Inc., is the proud publisher of the Black EOE Journal, Hispanic Network Magazine, Professional Woman's Magazine, U.S. Veterans Magazine, Diversity in STEAM Magazine and DIVERSEability Magazine, and is a WBENC-Certified Woman-Owned Business delivering diversity solutions. Each publication reaches over two (2) million readers.

Mike Williams, National BDPA President reported, "As a leading publisher of magazines focused on supporting diversity and STEM initiatives, BDPA is honored and proud that DiversityComm has committed to being one of our Gold Sponsors this year. We aligned in our efforts toward STEM diversity and our partnership continues to be one that is mutually beneficial for both organizations."

"DiversityComm is once again honored and proud to be the national media sponsor of BDPA. We want to recognize their champion efforts in promoting diversity and inclusion with their outreach, programs and initiatives," said Rita Kallas Diversity Director of Partnerships. "DiversityComm wants to wish the entire BDPA team the best of luck and success at this year’s event in Atlanta," she added. For more information, please be sure to check out www.diversitycomm.net."

Founded in 1975, BDPA has 46 chapters in the U.S., making it the largest African American IT association in the country. The organization continues to bridge the digital divide by providing training and career growth opportunities for its members.
