First Ever Midyear Leadership Retreat a Success

With 25 undergraduates and staff in attendance, this week's pilot Midyear Leadership Retreat proved to be a great opportunity for Alpha leaders to learn, share ideas and provide input on some of the Fraternity's latest programming initiatives.

From January 3-5, select leaders from a test group of Alphas gathered outside Nashville, Tenn. for a new leadership training retreat facilitated by Central Office staff. Modeled as companion programming for the new #1's Manual set to be released soon, the Midyear Leadership Retreat sought to educate our Alphas' leaders and provide them with the necessary tools for strong daily operations. Harmonize with your Alpha Chi Psi has long been known as a singing fraternity, whether or not each Alpha has chosen to publicly display this is a personal choice. We have many great songs for us in the Chi Psi Story and even an elected position of Choregus within each Alpha. The purpose of this position is to bring cheer and good spirit to the brotherhood through song. Read more...
