

Contact:
Gabrielle Rimmaudo
Director of Education and Growth
Email: grimmaudo@chipsi.org

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Chi Psi Fraternity Partners with Everfi for Risk Management Educational Programming The National Fraternity begins prevention initiative in hazing, alcohol abuse, and sexual assault

Nashville, TN – September 20, 2016 – In efforts to take every precautionary measure to prevent hazing, alcohol abuse, and sexual assault, Chi Psi Fraternity has partnered with Everfi, Inc., the leading provider of online prevention education in higher ed, to further train and assist our members in facing these critical issues through EverFi's online program, GreekLifeEdu.

As part of our ongoing commitment to risk management and reduction, Chi Psi is launching this program. GreekLifeEdu is a series of online courses targeted for students in fraternal organizations that addresses these critical issues. GreekLifeEdu leverages trends and incorporates evidence-based learning theories to help achieve behavior change objectives and help members practice safer decision-making. The purpose of this program is to help our members in developing the skills needed to make more informed, thoughtful, and safe decisions surrounding these heavy topics. Additionally, GreekLifeEdu will provide the data needed for Chi Psi to continue developing targeted programs towards risk management and reduction.

All Brothers of the 31 Alphas and Colony are required to complete this course in the fall of 2016. The program will be a requirement for each new member in following terms prior to initiation. To learn more about GreekLifeEdu, contact Director of Education and Growth, Gabrielle Rimmaudo, grimmaudo@chipsi.org.

###

Chi Psi Fraternity was founded in 1841 at Union College and is a strong presence at 31 of America's finest institutions of higher learning, prevailing to the present day through innovation and a unique outlook. Taking the idea of brotherhood to heart, Chi Psi is focused on developing young men socially, intellectually, and morally. Chi Psi is a Fraternity of gentlemen in pursuit of excellence that enhances the college experience, develops lifelong relationships, and builds better men.