

Trauma and Attachment Symposium: Safety, Security, Resiliency

MAY 4, 2018

Smith College Conference Center. Northampton, MA

Join fellow mental health care professionals at Cutchins Programs' first annual Trauma & Attachment Symposium.

Dr. Janice LeBel PhD, ABPP

Treatment Transformation with a Massachusetts Twist: Where have we been? Where are we going?

Dr. Daniel J. Siegel, MD

Neural Integration as a Pathway to Resilience & Well-Being: Attachment and Trauma Informed Care

Additional Presenters

Dr. Tina Champagne, OTD, OTR/L, CCAP, FAOTA

- The Sensory Modulation Program: Supporting Trauma and Attachment Informed Care
- Researching the Impact of Developmental Trauma on Sensory Integration, Self-awareness, and Participation: A Pilot Study

Dr. Peg Ingolia, OTD, OTR/L

- Parents of Children with Complex Trauma: Occupations Viewed Through Photovoice

To register: www.cutchinscare.org/symposium

Cost: $150 student and group discounts available

 Cutchins Programs
for Children & Families

For more information contact kdomina@cutchins.org