

Steven R. Englund is a partner in the Washington, D.C. office of Jenner & Block LLP. His practice focuses on the protection and commercialization of copyrighted works and new media and technology transactions. For over 20 years he has advised companies in various copyright industries concerning the application of copyright to new technologies and represented clients in commercial and corporate transactions, administrative proceedings before agencies such as the Copyright Office and the Copyright Royalty Board, legislative negotiations and litigation. He is Vice Chair of the Copyright Committee of the D.C. Bar Section of Intellectual Property. Steve graduated from the University of Minnesota in Computer Science and Political Science. He received his J.D. from the University of Michigan Law School, where he was Executive Editor of the Michigan Law Review.