

Eleanor M. Lackman is a partner at Cowan DeBaets Abrahams & Sheppard LLP. She focuses on litigation and counseling in copyright, trademark, digital media, entertainment and other intellectual property and commercial matters. In 2012, Eleanor was named as a "Rising Star" by Super Lawyers (New York Metro edition) for Intellectual Property Litigation.

Eleanor's litigation experience includes representing companies and individual clients in federal and state courts at all phases of litigation, from initial analysis through trial. She also advises clients in the media, entertainment, technology, consumer products and luxury goods industries, on IP prosecution, brand strategy, licensing and enforcement matters, including anti-piracy, anti-counterfeiting and brand protection, as well as on matters relating to operations online, such as privacy, publicity and endorsements.

Eleanor served as part of the teams for litigants in Cartoon Network LP v. CSC Holdings, Inc. ("Cablevision"), and Tiffany (NJ) Inc. v. eBay Inc., among other cases involving IP and technology. She has prepared amicus briefs in cases including Fox Television Stations, Inc. v. Aereokiller LLC; Cambridge University Press v. Becker; Authors Guild, Inc. v. HathiTrust; U.S. v. ASCAP (In re Yahoo!); and Capitol Records, Inc. v. Thomas.

Eleanor serves as Assistant Treasurer of the Copyright Society of the U.S.A. and as a member of the Internet Committee of the International Trademark Association (INTA), the Board of Advisors to the Fordham Center on Law and Information Policy, the Copyright and Trademark Committee of the Media Law Resource Center, and the National Academy of Recording Arts and Sciences.

Prior to joining Cowan, DeBaets in 2011, Eleanor practiced law at Hogan Lovells US LLP, Arnold & Porter LLP and Loeb & Loeb LLP. She received her law degree from Fordham University School of Law and graduated magna cum laude from Rollins College.