Events and Staff Notes

- CLC’s Annual Meeting is June 22 – We hope you’ll join us on Thursday 6/22 at the beautiful Library Wine Bar & Bistro in Wallingford for our annual business meeting. After a festive social hour, we’ll hear from CLC’s Business Development Consultants, Kairos Group, who will present their findings and recommendations for CLC’s future! Register at ctlibrarians.org/event/AM17.
- Welcome, Alena! – CLC is delighted to welcome our new Member Relations Manager, Alena Principato. Alena is a recent graduate of the School of Information and Library Science at the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, where she was selected for the prestigious Carolina Academic Library Associate program. Even as a newly-minted librarian, Alena has compiled impressive library skills and experience, including events planning, programming, outreach, marketing, serials management, research assistance, cataloging, and collection development. She’ll be putting those skills to work on behalf of all CLC members. Contact Alena at 860.344.8777 x104 or apincipato@ctlibrarians.org with your CLC product, service, and membership questions, and to welcome her to Connecticut library land!

- Have you met Trish? – Trish Palmer, CLC’s fabulous new Office Administrator, arrived at CLC in March, when we were so busy we didn’t even get a chance to give her a proper welcome! Trish came to CLC from Focus on Recovery-United, a Middletown non-profit, where she oversaw all financial, operational and HR-related matters. Although she’s only been here for three months, Trish is already deftly managing CLC’s office operations, anticipating and solving problems even before they arise. If you met her at the CLA Conference or you’ve talked to her on the phone, you already know she’s a gem! Contact Trish at 860.344.8777 x101 or tpalmer@ctlibrarians.org.

- Thank you, Fred! – Over the last 2 months, many of you have called or emailed “CLC Member Services” about product subscriptions, renewals and other needs. The friendly person taking your call or responding to your question was Winifred “Fred” Grimaldi, who filled in at CLC between Ellen Paul’s departure in March and Alena’s arrival this month. A former Human Resources executive at Travelers, Fred put her strong business background right to work in our library product and services sphere, embracing every new question with “I’ll figure it out!” positivity. We hope you had the opportunity to connect with her!
