

End of Conference Recap

What resonated with folks from the day?

- The sharing of ideas
- Opportunities to talk about collaboration
- The need to build trust and relationships
- One must look beyond themselves
- Progress is not always a straight line
- Inspiration is better than “should have”
- Meeting young and new leaders gives excitement for the future of Delaware

What would you like to see as follow ups from this conference?

- DANA providing workshops within organizations on Catalytic Thinking (working for Fall)
- Ability to follow up on the themes (working for Fall)
- Set up dates for additional meetings/discussions (working for Fall)
- Resource Bank idea (exploring possibility)
- How to get the names/contacts of all who participated (need to think on how to make possible)
- What resources are available from DANA – check our website
- How do we capitalize on the energy around “what we want” vs the problems – we each can play a part!
