2017 Spring CME Meeting

Required Relicensure

Risk Management & Treatment Updates

March 31-April 2, 2017

Please join The Florida Psychiatric Society for the 2017 Spring CME Meeting, Required Relicensure, Risk Management & Treatment Updates, where you will have the opportunity to earn the required continuing medical education (CME) credits and engage with your colleagues and other professionals. The Florida Psychiatric Society will also report, on your behalf, your earned CME credits to CE Broker for Florida licensed physicians.

The program is thoughtfully designed to offer interactive sessions with the latest in diagnosis and cutting edge treatments from experts, in addition, our networking breaks and receptions will provide the opportunity to spark discussions, ask questions, and engage with your peers. The Florida Psychiatric Society Spring 2017 CME Meeting delivers what you need to maintain and expand competence and medical knowledge that is necessary to the practice of psychiatry.

Meeting Accreditation

The Florida Psychiatric Society is accredited by the Florida Medical Association to provide Continuing Medical Education for physicians.

The Florida Psychiatric Society designates this live activity for a maximum of 11.0 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Meeting Disclosure

The Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) has mandated that all speakers must disclose financial relationships with any commercial interest that produces, markets, re-sells, or distributes health care goods or services consumed by or used on patients, that has a direct bearing on the subject matter of the CME activity in which they are involved. Having a financial interest in or affiliation with any corporate organization providing support for a program does not prevent a speaker from making a presentation, but the relationship must be made known in advance to the audience in accordance with the Standards for Commercial Support of Continuing Medical Education of the ACCME.

FPS Mission Statement

The Florida Psychiatric Society will continuously seek to improve the ability of its members to provide quality treatment for persons with mental illnesses.

Required Relicensure Risk Management & Treatment Updates
