

Forensic Nursing - Excellence

Stephanie Langley

Regina, Saskatchewan, Canada

Work Setting: Hospital. SANE practice. SANE education. SANE mentoring.

Stephanie Langley has been a SANE since 2009. She serves an adult population with compassion, exemplary skill, and creativity.

She has pursued additional forensic training at her own initiative and expense to expand her knowledge of forensic nursing. She shares that knowledge as an Emergency educator in her hospital in both structured and opportunistic teaching.

She is an asset to her team of nurses and a valuable resource for nurses and physicians.
