Attorney Aileen Leipprandt Honored as Preeminent Woman Lawyer

GRAND RAPIDS, MICHIGAN – February 5, 2013 ó Hilger Hammond, PC is pleased to announce that attorney Aileen Leipprandt has been selected for inclusion into the 2013 Martindale-Hubbell's Bar Register of Preeminent Women Lawyers. This will be the second year that Ms. Leipprandt has received this honor, which is exclusively reserved for women attorneys who have received the highest rating in both legal ability and ethical standards from their peers. Less than 5 percent of women lawyers have been recognized with an AV Preeminent Rating.

Aileen has a focused practice in the area of construction law and related litigation, including contract review, preparation, and negotiation, and pre-suit claims evaluation and facilitation. She has represented a variety of clients in these areas, including contractors, subcontractors, owners, sureties, manufacturers, governmental agencies, and suppliers.

“Aileen is a highly-experienced and well-trained advocate for the construction industry who has served in both a public and private capacity in representing players from all sectors of the industry,” says partner Steve Hilger.

For the past 20 years, Aileen has been a lecturer and author on many topics involving contract and construction law including Alternative Dispute Resolution, Bidding on Public Works, Public Works Act, MIOSHA Compliance, the Michigan Construction Lien Act, and the Builders Trust Fund Act.

Hilger Hammond, P.C. provides a broad array of legal services to the construction, real estate and business communities.
