March of Dimes Appoints Attorney Inhulsen to Two Key Positions

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., March 20, 2013 – John Inhulsen, an attorney with Foster Swift Collins & Smith, PC, has been appointed to the following positions: Chairman of the Board of Directors for the Grand Rapids March of Dimes and member of the Michigan March of Dimes Board of Directors.

Inhulsen has been involved with March of Dimes for a number of years, most recently serving as chair of the Grand Rapids 2012 Signature Chef event. Currently, he is a board member of both Broadway Grand Rapids and the MSU Alumni Club of West Michigan, in addition to several other advisory and leadership committees.

Inhulsen is a shareholder at Foster Swift and works as a member of the Commercial Litigation practice group, working in the firm's Grand Rapids office. He completed his undergraduate studies at Michigan State University and received his juris doctorate from Michigan State University College of Law.

The March of Dimes is the leading nonprofit organization for pregnancy and baby health. With chapters nationwide and its premier event, March for Babies, the March of Dimes works to improve the health of babies by preventing birth defects, premature birth and infant mortality.
