

To Whom It May Concern:

Thank you so much for your interest in applying for IACP Fellowship Status. The Fellowship Program of IACP offers pharmacists the opportunity to be recognized by their colleagues and to be distinguished in their communities as specialists in the art and skill of pharmacy compounding.

Established in 1997, the Fellowship Program distinguishes pharmacists who are exemplary in their professionalism and commitment to the practice of pharmacy compounding. Each applicant's credentials are assessed against rigorous criteria that include contributions to published literature, continuing education, presentations, leadership, professional and civic service as well as professional awards. The criteria are designed to maintain a balance between subject areas and to ensure that the IACP Fellows are diverse in their practices and community activities.

IACP Fellows meet stringent requirements designed to demonstrate their commitment to patient care through quality pharmacy compounding and the highest ethical and professional standards. All Fellows must be registered pharmacists who have practiced pharmacy for at least five years and practiced as a compounding pharmacist for at least three years.

Since the IACP Fellowship Program's inception, 88 pharmacists have been honored as members of this elite group.

Fellows are inducted twice a year at the Educational Conference and Compounders on Capital Hill (CCH). IACP members are eligible if they:

- Adhere to the Academy's Code of Ethics,
- Currently practice or actively support the art and skill of pharmacy compounding, and
- Have been a member of IACP for at least three years.

REQUIREMENTS

In order to be considered for Fellowship, candidates must:

- Be nominated by at least one current Fellow.
- Earn a set amount of points in various categories of service and professional involvement such as continuing education, presentations and published articles, professional awards, and professional and civic service.
- Submit a video tour of practice site.
- Submit completed Fellowship application with supportive materials, approval from the Fellowship Committee, which then makes a recommendation for approval to the IACP Board of Directors.
