

13th Annual International Association for Intelligence Education Conference

New Challenges and Opportunities for Enhancing Intelligence Education

Call for Proposals

From May 21-24, 2017, American Military University will host the annual IAFIE conference in Charles Town, WV. The goal of the conference is to further promote intelligence education and provide an opportunity for networking among scholars and practitioners from academia, the private sector, and government. We seek papers from those who support and are aligned with the Mission of the Association: to advance research, knowledge, and professional development in intelligence education. We are particularly interested in panel, paper, and poster proposals that speak to the conference theme of new challenges and opportunities for enhancing intelligence education.

Specifically we are interested in complete panel proposals, individual paper proposals, and graduate/undergraduate poster presentations in the following areas:

- Intelligence Theory
- Emerging Intelligence Issues
- Competitive Intelligence
- Law Enforcement Intelligence/Protective Intelligence
- Critical Thinking and Information Synthesis
- Career Transitions
- Intelligence Pedagogy
- Intelligence Applications from other Fields (STEM, Environment, Health, etc.)

Please submit your 250-300 word paper/panel/poster proposals (abstracts) to IAFIE2017@apus.edu by March 3. Accepted proposals will be notified by March 24.

If submitting a complete conference panel:

Panel proposals are recommended to be capped at 4 presentations with the addition of a panel discussant. Panel proposals should include a single 250-300 word abstract and panel title, in addition to:

- All presenter names, affiliations, and presentation titles.
- Panel discussant name and affiliation.
- Panel chair name and affiliation.

We will also be introducing a poster session to the program. An award will be given to the best graduate student poster and best undergraduate student poster.

The conference welcomes paper and poster proposals from students. All student proposals must be accompanied by a letter of endorsement from a faculty member.

For more information on presenting, attending, or sponsoring the conference, please visit the IAFIE website: <http://www.iafie.org/>.
