

SMU's Caruth Institute for Entrepreneurship director to get Richard F. Tozer award

Caruth Institute for Entrepreneurship director Jerry White will receive the Dr. Richard F. Tozer Innovation & Entrepreneurship Leadership Award from the Institute of Management Consultants Monday, March 20, at a dinner at the Crowne Plaza Addison.

Jerry White

Dr. Richard F. Tozer

Connect with IMC

DFW:

Facebook

Twitter

LinkedIn

YouTube

The award is named for Richard F. Tozer, a longtime Dallas management consultant who taught at Southern Methodist University and the University of Texas at Dallas. A panel led by Dr. Gerald Turner, CMC®, will bring Dr. Tozer's legacy to a new audience. Panelists Dallas Diggs, Elizabeth Jones, Edward Stone, CMC®, and Don Springer promise a lively discussion.

The DFW Chapter of the Institute of Management Consultants supports the management consulting community in North Texas. Guests can register to attend the event at <http://bit.ly/2mUFELH>, and learn more about IMC at <http://bit.ly/2mzvtfR>.

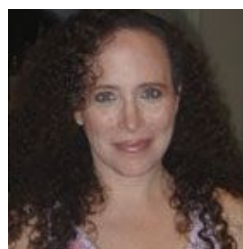

Gerald Turner, Ph.D., CMC®, CPgM, PE is an enterprise performance management executive, program manager, business advisor, executive coach, author and trainer who delivers sustainable, high-impact solutions for growth oriented businesses and industries within the Global Fortune 500.

Don Springer is Chairman and CEO of The Colton Group, Inc., a board directorship and executive advisory firm providing actionable strategies.

Dallas Diggs' firm, The Diggs Group, helps business-to-business firms and non-profits accelerate growth by defining and implementing improvements in customer experience.

Elizabeth F. Jones serves as visiting professor at the University of Texas at Dallas, where she is co-founder and Associate Director of the Center for Finance Strategy Innovation.

Edward Stone, CMC®, FIMC® served as Chair of IMC USA, and as the U.S. representative to ICMCI. He founded the Dallas Marketing Group.

