

NOMINATION FORM
ISBA Appellate Practice Section
David M. Hamacher
2015

SELECTION CRITERIA: The Hamacher Award is named in memory of David M. Hamacher, a former chair of the Appellate Practice Section of the Indiana State Bar Association, and one of the most active members of the Section.

David's untimely death a few years ago caused the members of the Section to pause and reflect on the tremendous accomplishments and career of David. After consulting with David's widow, the Appellate Practice Section decided to recognize David's accomplishments in an ongoing manner by annually honoring someone who exhibited the following attributes seen in David:

- High moral character and ethical standards
- Service to the community
- Peacemaking qualities

Two additional qualifications were noted. First, the person need not be an attorney. Second, the award is not gender specific.
