RE: Enforcement Dates for Ontario IRP Plates

Please distribute the following information to all IRP member jurisdictions:

The Road User Safety Division of the Ontario Ministry of Transportation advises that under Ontario law a grace period is provided through May 31, 2013, for all trucks and buses with April 30, 2013 expiration validation stickers displayed on their Ontario IRP plates. Please honour this grace period by delaying enforcement of expired validation on these vehicles operating in your jurisdiction until May 31, 2013.

Please see that law enforcement from each IRP jurisdiction receives this information.

If you have any questions or require further information, please contact Beata Soltys at 416-235-3923 or beata.soltys@ontario.ca.
