Sharepoint 2013 - Technical Overview

Presenter(s):
Ken Collins, CDW-G

Abstract: Overview of SharePoint 2013, including new features and functionality. The session will include examples of how other customers are using SharePoint, and how it applies to members of the Midwest Water & Wastewater Technology Conference. The session will also include a technical deep dive into some of the products collaborative features as it applies to the overall Microsoft solution stack.