

Susan Larsen Beck, PhD, APRN, FAAN, AOCN

Susan Larsen Beck, PhD, APRN, FAAN, AOCN is professor at the University of Utah College of Nursing in Salt Lake City, Utah, United States. Her research addresses pain and symptom management with a focus on interventions to improve the quality and outcomes of care. She has collaborated on investigations of a computer-based automated telephone symptom monitoring system with Nurse Practitioner (NP) follow-up for unrelieved symptoms. Recently her work has focused on translating tools to improve the quality of care related to pain management into practice, funded as part of the Interdisciplinary Nursing Quality Research Initiative. She helped to lead the Oncology Nursing Society (ONS) Quality Measures Team and serves in an advisory role on the ONS Research Advisory Panel/Quality, Evidence-Based Practice and Outcomes Subgroup. Dr. Beck received the ONS Distinguished Service Award in 2003 and was the 2012 Oncology Nursing Society Distinguished Nurse Researcher.
