

LES Financial Hardship Policy

(Revised May 2017)

Licensing Executives Society (USA and Canada), Inc. (LES) is a professional society dedicated to providing quality professional development in the field of licensing, including continuing legal education to attorneys. Therefore, LES has instituted a financial hardship policy for attorneys who are unemployed. Attorneys who are unemployed or in transition at the time of the course will be granted ½ off the tuition for a CLE course. If you feel that you may qualify for a financial hardship course fee reduction, please send a letter describing your situation and why you are requesting the scholarship to:
