COURSE MATERIALS THEATRE

live presentations during the Buying Show

Join these course materials vendors, PLUS MORE, as MACS hosts its first Course Materials Theatre. During the Trade Show portion of the meeting, these nine course materials vendors have signed up for 12 different 15-minute presentations, Speaking on the topic of their choice, these presentations will give all course materials members in attendance the opportunity to learn a bit more about their business, products, and support. There will also be a discussion about steps publishers are taking to combat counterfeit textbooks.

The CMT will be in a private area on the trade show floor with full screen and microphone capabilities, shielded from the main trade show by thick curtains so the presentations are not interrupted.
