Educational Objectives

Upon completion of this symposium, you will be able to:

- Understand telemedicine’s unique presentation of clinical problems that evade traditional scope-of-practice parameters. Define the legal liabilities and supervisory ramifications of telemedicine diagnosis.

- Describe common errors, omissions and/or commissions of supervision of AHCP’s that could precipitate complaints or violations under the jurisdiction of the Missouri Board of Healing Arts

- Define the respective boards’ role in the definition of collaborative agreement between the Missouri Board of Healing Arts and the Missouri Board of Nursing

- Understand the ramifications of the Missouri Supreme Court ruling that prevents the Missouri Board of Healing Arts from informing physicians of their responsibilities for supervising collaborative agreements

Panel Participants

- Honorable Missouri Lt. Governor Peter Kinder
- Shawn Martin, Vice-President for Advocacy, American Academy of Family Physicians, Washington, D.C.
- Jeffrey G. Copeland, MD, FACP, President, Missouri State Medical Association
- Lee Parks, DO, President, Missouri Association of Osteopathic Physicians and Surgeons
- Mark Laney, MD, President and CEO, Mosaic Life Care
- Mo. Representative Keith J. Fredericks, DO, Chairman, House Committee for Health Care Policy
- Mo. Representative Eric Burlison, Chairman, House Committee for Professional Regulation
- Mo. Senator Rob Schaaf, MD, Vice Chairman, Senate Committee for Veterans Health Affairs
- James DiRenna, DO, former President and member, Missouri Board of Healing Arts
- Johnny Richardson, Esq., Brydon, Swearingen & England Law Firm, former counsel to Missouri Board of Healing Arts
