

MICHIGAN POLICE CHIEFS

GENERAL INFORMATION

Michigan Police Chiefs is the official publication of the Michigan Association of Chiefs of Police (MACP). Founded in 1924, the Association exists to advance the science and art of police administration and crime prevention, to develop and disseminate approved administrative and technical practices and promote their use in police work, to foster police cooperation, unity of action, and the exchange of information and experience among police officers of this state, to bring about the recruitment and training in the police profession of qualified persons, to seek legislation of benefit to the citizens of the state or law enforcement in general, and to encourage adherence of all police officers to high professional standards of conduct.

The publication is produced tri-annually with a circulation of over 1,200 per issue. All editorial and advertising is subject to publisher approval and space availability. MACP reserves the right to refuse any ad that they consider inappropriate and does not hold to the standards and principals of the Association.
