

POLICE EXECUTIVES' AND NEW CHIEFS' SCHOOL

General Information

About the Training

MCOLES 302 Approved

This outstanding program is geared for new Chiefs/Directors, including Deputy Chiefs, Assistant Chiefs, and Command Personnel. The five-day session is presented by the MACP under the leadership of Retired Chief Neal Rossow. Topics covered include: Conducting the Department Audit; Building a Strong Leadership Team; Financial Management of Police Agencies; Operating in the Political Environment; Media Relations; Public Safety Agencies; Developing Written Directives & Policy Procedures; Union Perspective; Legal Updates for the Law Enforcement Executive; Michigan Commission on Law Enforcement Standards (MCOLES); and Labor Relations. The class concludes with a Panel Discussion where students can ask questions and get advice from a panel of current chiefs. The class is held twice a year once in the spring and once in the fall. Early Registration is recommended as space is limited for this popular training.
