

Fall 2008, University of Virginia, Co-hosted by the University of Virginia Library and the College of William and Mary Library

Friday, November 7, 2008 1:00pm-4:00pm: Tour of the Library of Congress' National AudioVisual Conservation Center in Culpeper, VA.

Saturday, November 8, 2008

8:30am-9:00am: Registration, coffee and light breakfast items in Garrett Hall.

9:00am-9:15am: Welcome from Deputy University Librarian Diane Walker

9:15am-10:15am: Scott Nelson: Taking Folk Music Seriously: John Henry, Steel-Drivin' Man and a Story of Unmarked Graves

10:15-10:30 – coffee break

10:30am-12:00 – Madelyn Wessel: Music Copyright Forum

12:00-1:30pm – lunch (provided)

1:30pm-2:30pm – Matthew Burtner: Digital Media performance and the Music Library (may include a performance of the Mobile Interactive Computer Ensemble)

2:30pm-3:00pm – Joe Clark: Captivate Me! Utilizing Online Tutorials to Train Staff & Educate Patrons

3:00pm-3:30pm – Richard Griscom: Francis Johnson: Music Master of Early Philadelphia 3:30pm-3:45pm – coffee break 3:45pm-4:15pm – Ana Dubnjakovic and Robert Sebek: Using Mashups: Adding Utility to Your OPAC

4:15pm -5:00pm – Business Meeting