<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Risk Factors</th>
<th>PERPETUATING CONDITIONS (Unchangeable)</th>
<th>PREDISPOSING CONDITIONS (of Serious Concern)</th>
<th>PRECIPITATING CONDITIONS (Acute)</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| FAMILY               | ● Family history of suicide, mental illness, substance abuse
● Race
● Gender                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | ● Unrealistic parental expectations
● Abuse (emotional, physical, sexual)                                                                                                                                                | ● Major family conflict
● Exposure to suicide of family member
● Anniversary of death
● Moving often                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| PERSONAL BEHAVIORAL  | ● Loss through death, abandonment, divorce                                                                                                                                                                                               | ● Previous suicide attempt
● Mental illness
● Substance abuse
● Extreme Perfectionism
● Poor coping/social skills
● Impulsive                                                                                                                                                                           | ● Current acute Mental Illness
● Severe stress/anxiety
● Isolation
● Rejection
● Relationship break-up
● Increased use of substances                                                                                                                                                               |
| ENVIRONMENTAL SOCIAL | ● Inconsistent, neglectful or abusive parenting
● Sexual orientation
● Gender identity                                                                                                                                                                                                              | ● Experience of repeated loss
● Chronic severe stress
● Ongoing harassment                                                                                                                                                               | ● Active suicide cluster in community
● Access to lethal means
● Bullying, harassment
● Loss of freedom (e.g., incarceration)                                                                                                                                                  |