6.0 Continuing Education Hours (includes 1.0 Ethics) for LCSWs, LSWs, LMFTs, LMHCs, LACs and LCACs, psychologists, and NAADAC; 6.0 hours of Professional Growth Plan Points available for educators and school counselors

Location: Indiana Interchurch Center, 1100 West 42nd Street, Indianapolis, IN 46208 (Map) in Krannert Hall

CONTENT: This intense workshop is designed to explore ways of providing ethical and accountable supervision in the clinical setting. The seminar introduces and examines how people learn to maximize the educational experience. Adult learning principles and specific techniques will be applied to increase supervisory understanding, support, education and evaluation of supervisees. In addition, this workshop will provide tips for evidence-based practice, electronic communications and managing ethical situations while utilizing strengths-oriented empowering strategies.

OBJECTIVES:
- Identify three different learning styles and how to maximize teaching, learning and communication in supervisory sessions.
- Identify two factors that can be considered obstacles to effective communication in the supervisory relationship.
- Identify three types of supervision and apply these types to specific practice examples.
- Demonstrate an awareness of roles and expectations of supervisors by listing several ways to maximize the supervisor and supervisee relationship.
- Identify at least four ethical and legal factors to consider when conducting clinical supervision.
- Apply knowledge of basic elements of ethical decision making to the process of supervision through application of case example and case study.
