New Jersey Hospice and Palliative Care Organization is an approved provider of continuing nursing education by the New Jersey State Nurses Association, an accredited approver by the American Nurses Credentialing Center’s Commission On Accreditation. Provider Number P247-10/12-15.

Accredited status does not imply endorsement by NJSNA, New Jersey Hospice and Palliative Care Organization, or ANCC of any commercial products or services.

There is no commercial support for this activity.

This review will prepare nurses to take the Hospice and Palliative Nursing Association’s Certification Examination. Review time will be allocated in proportion to the stated weight of a given topic on the examination itself. Registrants will receive continental breakfast, luncheon and snack breaks, opportunities to form study groups and professional networking/sharing.

Registrants are strongly encouraged to borrow a copy if they are not purchasing their own copy.
Exam Content

- Patient Care: Life-Limiting Conditions in Adult Patients 15%
- Patient Care: Pain Management 24%
- Patient Care: Symptom Management 24%
- Care of Patient and Family 13%
- Education and Advocacy 9%
- Interdisciplinary/Collaborative Practice 8%
- Professional Issues 7%

Please note:
Registration for this review course does not constitute registration for the Certification Examination for Hospice and Palliative Nursing. The Certification Handbook and application for the written exam are available online by visiting the website http://hpcc.advancingexpertcare.org/competence/rn-chpn/. You can also call the testing service, Applied Measurement Professionals (AMP), at 1-888-519-9901.

- The examination is administered by computer at over 200 AMP Assessment Centers throughout the U.S. Go to http://online.goamp.com/CandidateHome/assessmentCenterNetworkLocations.aspx for a list of testing locations. As of January 7, 2015, it listed New Jersey testing sites in Robbinsville and Wayne. The closest New York testing centers are located in Astoria, Hicksville, New York City, and White Plains. The closest testing centers in Pennsylvania are Philadelphia, Harrisburg and Wyoming.
- There are four “examination windows” during which the examination is offered: March 1-31, June 1-30, September 1-30 and December 1-31. NJHPCO will offer review course in the summer, timed to prepare nurses for the September and December “examination windows.”
- While NJHPCO will provide information which it believes to be relevant to the examination, it cannot guarantee that specific information will be included, nor specific questions asked, on the examination.

This is a review course for experienced hospice nurses and is not an introduction to the field of hospice and palliative nursing.

To be eligible for the CHPN Examination, an applicant must, by the application deadline, hold a current, unrestricted registered nurse license in the U.S., its territories, or the equivalent in Canada. It is recommended, further, that a nurse have at least two years’ experience as an RN in hospice and palliative nursing practice.

Completion/Verification: Registrants must complete the entire course to receive the full number of contact hours. If registrants are called away for patient or personal emergencies, contact hours will be granted proportional to course time completed.

NJHPCO will not send registration confirmations.

NJHPCO will grant refunds of registration, minus a $50.00 processing fee, until close of business three business days before the program (Friday afternoon, July 24th). No refunds will be granted thereafter. Substitute registrants may be sent by an agency or registrant. NJHPCO bears no responsibility for any interaction between the book publisher and the course registrant.

ADA Accommodations: Please call NJHPCO at 908-233-0060.
