

10th Annual

PI THETA EPSILON DISTINGUISHED LECTURER EVENT

Alpha Iota Chapter presents...

Dr. Neil Harvison PhD, OTR/L, FAOTA "OCCUPATIONAL THERAPY EDUCATION ...THE NOW AND THE FUTURE"

Dr. Neil Harvison is the Chief Officer for Professional Affairs at the American Occupational Therapy Association (AOTA). In this capacity he provides leadership and direction for the accreditation, education, research, continuing professional competency, practice standards and governance functions of the Association. Dr. Harvison holds a bachelor's degree in occupational therapy (Hons.) from the University of Queensland (Australia), a Master of Arts in Developmental Disabilities Studies from New York University, and a Doctorate of Philosophy from the Steinhardt School of Education at New York University.

Prior to joining AOTA in 2006, Dr. Harvison spent over 24 years as a pediatric practitioner and hospital administrator. For 12 years he was the Associate Director for outpatient services at the Mount Sinai Rehabilitation Center in New York City. During this period, he held clinical faculty appointments at the Mount Sinai School of Medicine, Columbia University College of Physician and Surgeons, and Mercy College. Dr. Harvison served in a number of volunteer leadership roles as a member of AOTA before joining the staff in 2006. He has also served on the Board of Directors of the Association of Specialized and Professional Accreditors (ASPA) as both the Chairperson and Vice-Chairperson.

Dr. Harvison currently serves as a member of numerous national interprofessional advisory boards. He is the author of numerous publications and presentations in health care education and accreditation and is an associate editor for education with the American Journal of Occupational Therapy. In 2011 Dr. Harvison was recognized with the AOTA Fellows award for service to education and practice.
