"Clinical Pearls for Acute Abdominal Pain"

11:20 AM – 12:35 AM
Renaissance Room

Anne Hedger, DNP, ACNP, ANP, CPNP-AC
Emergency Services of Oregon
Providence Newberg Medical Center
1.25 contact hour with 0.25 pharmacology

Course Description:
This session will utilize a case study approach to discuss decision making pearls which affect the client with acute abdominal pain.

Course Objectives:
Upon completion of this educational session, the learner/participant will be able to:
1. Recognize the major diagnostic patterns in a client with acute abdomen
2. Examine the relevant anatomy and physiology basis of the acute abdominal pain client
3. Describe a diagnostic approach and management plan for the acute abdominal pain client

Presenter Disclosures:
• Presenter declares no conflict of interest.
• Presenter declares this session does not include information about off-label use of a product for a purpose other than that for which it was approved by the Food and Drug Administration (FDA).