Constitution of the Pacific Northwest Hospital Medicine Association, Local 6552, AFT, AFL-CIO

ARTICLE I NAME

This organization shall be known as the Pacific Northwest Hospital Medicine Association, Local 6552, AFT, AFL-CIO.

ARTICLE II
OBJECTIVES

The purpose of this organization shall be:

Section 1. to promote the interests of patients who are served by the membership; and

Section 2. to advance the economic, social, and political well-being of the membership; and

Section 3. to promote the highest professional and ethical standards of the medical profession; and

Section 4. to encourage mutual understanding and cooperation among the membership; and

Section 5. to promote the effectiveness and quality of the institutions in which our members work; and

Section 6. to promote democracy, equality, and trade unionism in the society at large.

ARTICLE III
MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Physicians, dentists, physician’s assistants, and nurse practitioners employed at acute care facilities in the Pacific Northwest are eligible for membership in this organization.

Section 2. No person shall be denied membership, nor shall this organization ever discriminate against individual members or applicants for membership on the basis of race, creed, sex, sexual orientation, disability, social, political, or economic status, national origin, or immigration status.

Section 3. Discipline of members.

a. A member may be disciplined by the organization for actions contrary to this Constitution or to the interests of the union or its membership. Such action may only be initiated by the bringing of written and signed charges to the Executive Board by two or more members of the local; these charges must include a specific and detailed accounting, including any documentation, of the allegations against the member.
b. Upon the receipt of such charges, the Executive Board shall cause a preliminary investigation to be conducted in order to determine whether the charges against the member have merit. In addition, at this time, the Executive Board shall give a copy of the charges to the accused member.

c. Following the preliminary investigation, the Executive Board shall vote on the question of whether a disciplinary hearing should be held. If a majority of the Executive Board votes to hold a hearing, the member shall be given at least ten (10) days written notice of the hearing.

d. At a disciplinary hearing, the accused member shall have the right to be represented by a person of his or her choice, and shall have the right to question the charges and present evidence and witnesses to support their defense. At the conclusion of the hearing, a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Executive Board shall be required for discipline. If a member of the Executive Board has brought the charges against the member, that Board member shall recuse him/herself from the vote.

e. A disciplined member may appeal the decision of the Executive Board to the membership by requesting a vote at the next regular meeting. A simple majority of the members voting shall be sufficient to overrule the decision of the Executive Board to discipline.

Section 4. A member in good standing is defined as a member who is current in payment of dues to the organization. A member who is more than 30 days delinquent in dues payment shall be considered to be a member in bad standing, and shall be promptly notified of such status. A member shall be removed from membership in this organization, with notice, following three months of dues nonpayment, unless a plan to pay back dues is made and approved by both the Executive Board and the member.

Section 5. The Executive Board shall establish guidelines for retiree membership, dues, and participation in the local in the form of a retiree chapter, in accordance with AFT guidelines.

ARTICLE IV
ELECTION OF OFFICERS

Section 1. Elections shall be conducted in accordance with the AFT Constitution and the standards established by the Labor-Management Reporting and Disclosure Act of 1959 (LMRDA).

Section 2. Officers shall be elected in January of odd years. Terms of office shall be two years. The organization will elect the following officers:

a. President
b. Vice President
c. Secretary
d. Treasurer

Section 3. To be eligible for office a person must be a member in good standing of the organization for a period of six months prior to the date of the election.
Section 4. The Elections Committee shall conduct all general and special elections and referenda of the organization.

a. The Elections Committee shall consist of three members in good standing appointed by the President with the approval of the Executive Board. The Elections Committee shall elect its chair.

b. Any member of the Elections Committee nominated for or seeking office must vacate their position and be replaced by a member nominated by the president and approved by the Executive Board.

Section 5. Thirty (30) days prior to the date that balloting commences, the Elections Committee shall notify all members of the opening of nominations for officers, the offices to be filled and of the date of the election by first class U.S. Mail to the members' last known home address.

Section 6. The nomination of candidates for office shall be conducted as follows:

a. To be nominated a candidate must submit to the Elections Committee a petition containing the signatures of ten (10) percent of the membership, or five (5) members, whichever is less. Said petitions must be submitted no later than ten (10) days following the notice of the opening of nominations.

b. Members nominated to run for office must affirmatively accept their nomination.

c. The Election Committee shall determine whether the nominations were timely and if the nominees are eligible for office.

Section 7. At least fifteen (15) days prior to the election, the Elections Committee shall notify all members of date the commencement of the election, the date and time by which ballots must be returned, and the candidates for offices.

Section 8. The rules for balloting and tallying of ballots shall be as follows:

a. The Elections Committee shall conduct a mail ballot election. The vote shall be by secret ballot. Write in votes shall not be allowed. In the event there is only one nominee for an office, an election for that office shall not be held and the nominee shall be elected by acclamation.

b. Ballots shall be delivered and returned by First Class U.S. Mail. The Elections Committee shall establish rules to govern the election which will include rules for replacement of lost or spoiled ballots.

c. The Elections Committee shall utilize a double envelope system to ensure the secrecy of the ballot. The committee shall allow no less than two weeks and no more than three weeks for members to return their ballots by mail. For the initial election, ballots shall be returned to an address chosen by the Elections Committee and the Elections Committee shall take steps to ensure that the returned ballots are safeguarded until the date they are tallied. For all subsequent elections, the Elections Committee shall rent a post office box to be used for election purposes only and the ballots shall be retrieved by the Elections Committee following the date and time the election concludes.
d. Ballots shall be retrieved and tallied by the Elections Committee as soon as possible following the date and time that balloting concludes but no later than 24 hours following that date and time.

Section 9. A plurality vote will constitute an election. In case of a tie, the choice will be made by lot.

Section 10. Challenges and objections to the election must be submitted in writing, with a statement of supporting reasons that includes specific facts as well as any documentation, to the Elections Committee within five (5) days of the count. The Elections Committee shall issue its written opinion regarding the objections no later than ten (10) days after receipt of such objections.

Section 11. The election results will be published and distributed to the membership within thirty (30) days of the count. All elections materials, including the ballots, will be kept in a secure location for one (1) year.

Section 12. Following the initial election of officers, such officers will assume office upon election. After succeeding elections, successful candidates shall assume office within thirty (30) days of the conclusion of the election.

Section 13. With the exception of the President, or in case of a recall, the Executive Board will have the power to fill vacancies in its membership until the next general election of officers.

Section 14. A petition signed by forty-five percent (45%) of the membership, and alleging constitutional violations, fiduciary breaches or acts clearly detrimental to the union, shall be sufficient to require the Executive Board to vote on whether to conduct a recall election of the officer identified in the petition. The officer subject to recall and any Executive Board member signing the petition shall not vote on the question of a recall election. If a majority of the Executive Board approves a recall election, the Elections Committee shall supervise the recall election.
