MY leadership positions during my Army career consisted of Patrol Supervisor, Desk Sergeant, Squad Leader while in the Military Police Corps. My leadership positions while in the U. S. Army Recruiting Command consisted of Station Commander, Recruiter Training Non-Commissioned Officer, and prior to retirement the First Sergeant of a 10 station recruiting company servicing the southern portion of New Jersey.

12. What community issues should the association be addressing?
 One of the many issues is Workforce Housing: "Communities across the country increasingly are recognizing the link between workforce housing and their communities' economic and social well-being. Shortages of affordable housing close to where families work can lead to longer commutes, sprawl and traffic congestion that degrade the quality of life for all residents."
 (Source: NAR Workforce Housing Initiatives in the REALTOR® Action Center)
13. In your opinion, what are the greatest challenges facing the industry today that ORRA should address?
 The future of the Real Estate profession and especially the relevance of the REALTOR® brand. Find ways of educating the public on the importance of using a REALTOR®.
14. What is your position on the issues of property taxes, insurance, and private property rights?
 Ensuring that we stay abreast on the current issues that affect these items. Making sure that ORRA members are aware and know where to go get the most current updated information.
15. If elected, what would you like to have accomplished by the end of your term?
 Ensuring that ORRA has progressed in servicing and providing essential benefits to our members.
16. You will be expected and/or required to attend the following meetings and functions listed below. Will you make this commitment?

Yes No (If no, explain) _____

- a. Monthly ORRA Board of Directors meetings – one per month, plus preparation and reading time.
- b. Special board meetings - Although rare, can occur on short notice and can run two to three hours.
- c. Grievance/ethics/arbitration appeal panels – two to four occurrences, each running about one hour.
- d. Membership meetings and events – multiple Membership luncheons and events, one inaugural event, Great American REALTOR® Days visit to Tallahassee, one awards event, RPAC Auction
- e. State association meetings – one three-day meeting in January and one three-day meeting in August. These meetings are especially important if you are appointed a state director.
- f. Various meetings – committees, task forces, work groups, etc.
- g. Planning and training sessions (required) – one annual leadership training session and one strategic planning retreat (if held).
- h. Community commitment (the Chamber's Hob Nob, zoning meetings, etc.)

To my knowledge, the above information is true, correct, and complete.
