Richland Girl Is Bride of Panama Student in Rites

RICHLAND — At a Wednesday ceremony Miss Mary Wynne Atkinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Atkinson of Richland, Mrs. Fernandez, son of Mr. and Mrs. Celestino Munoz Santiago of Colon, Panama.

The Rev. Bertram A. Warren of Walla Walla officiated at the double ring ceremony in St. Paul's Episcopal church, Kennewick, with the bride's father giving her in marriage.

She wore a gown of lace with fitted bodice and illusion net yoke. The skirt cascaded into a full train and she carried a prayerbook with a white orchid and shower of stephanotis, and white ribbon. Her handkerchief of Belgian lace, she had brought from Brussels and for luck she wore in her shoe an ancient Roman coin, a gift from Prince Ferdinand Pignatelli of Italy. For "something blue" she had an ornate karter, gift of Mrs. Charles Lewis of Fort Worth. Her net veil was caught in a low tara and a double string of pearls from the bridegroom completed her costume.

Miss Tom Atkinson, her sister's maid of honor, wore a gold formal length gown with a head band of green tulle and carried bronze and red chrysanthemums.

F. J. Carroll was best man and R. M. Hurst and J. W. Brand ushers. Miss Carol Cox and Miss Fran Gay Atkinson were candlelighters.

Mrs. G. W. Pappas provided organ music and accompanied Miss Jeanne Bowen as she sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "O Promise Me."

Mrs. Atkinson chose a floor-length gown of aqua lace and carriage of sweetheart roses.

A reception at the Desert Inn followed. The serving table was covered with a cutwork banquet cloth from the Azores. Mrs. Claude Lyons presided at the punch bowl with Mrs. R. M. Hurst assisting. The bride attended Stephens college in Missouri, Marquette convent in Rome, Italy, La Chassotte convent in Fribourg, Switzerland, Marymount college, New York, Miami university in Ohio and the Louisiana State university at Baton Rouge. She is a member of Chi Omega sorority and the French club, Madrigal.

The bridegroom attended preparatory school in Barranquilla, Colombia and college at Louisiana State university. He is a member of Sociedad de Ciencia Naturales and Phi Iota Alpha fraternities.

The couple will tour Victoria and Vancouver, B. C. before going to Baton Rouge for a few months. Their home is to be in Colon, Panama.

To relax your eye muscles at bedtime, look at an object far away. Then look at your index finger six inches from your nose. Blink often and repeat the exercise several times. Then, provided your bed is comfortable, sleep should come easily.

Hermiston Rites Unite Young Pair

HERMISTON — Miss DeEtta Paul Harding, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Harding, became the bride of David Hayes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hayes, at the Methodist church Sunday afternoon.

The Rev. A. E. Davis officiated in a setting of gladioli and greenery, accented with tapers in branched candelabra. Mrs. Earl Watson played the wedding music, and accompanied Grant Hutchins, who sang "Because," "O Promise Me," and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin, en train, with a fingertip length veil which fell from a halo of white carnations. She carried white roses.

Shinbo-Ikeda Rites Sunday

Miss Florence Andrews was maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Miss Joan Plass and Miss Janice Daugherty. Trainbearer was Dixie Giddens, and candlelighters were Miss Joyce Harding, sister of the bride, and Miss Patsy Watson.

Best man was Jim Rouse of Pendleton, cousin of the bridegroom, and ushers were the bridegroom's brother-in-law, Dolph Ellingson, and Frank Kinney, cousin of the bride.

A wedding reception was held in the Bruce Giddens home. Mrs. Elmer Kutzke, aunt of the bride, cut and served the wedding cake, and Mrs. Olyn Hodge, aunt of the bridegroom, served punch. Mrs. Dolph Ellingson had charge of the gifts and the guestbooks.

Out-of-town relatives attending were Mr. and Mrs. T. B. McMurray of Lewiston, uncle and aunt of the bridegroom; Mrs. Glen Kimble of Pullman, his aunt; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Haynes of Mt. Rainier, his uncle and aunt; Mrs. Della Millist of Everett, his great aunt; Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Rouse of Pullman, his grandparents, and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Anderson of Pendleton and Mrs. Marnie Breckenman of Lewiston.

After a week's wedding trip in Idaho, the couple will be at home in Hermiston Park.

Flannels with dual personalities play a major role in this season's fashion presentation. Designed to be worn with or without a blouse, they go their casual way as suits or button up to do double duty as dresses.
