

World War One

Quaker witness to peace and non-violence

This Exhibition illustrates the experience of Quakers facing the challenges of WW1.

It pays tribute to the courage of those people and communities (not just Quakers) who expressed their faith and conviction in opposing war and in working for peace.

It highlights the need for our continuing commitment to peace-making and non-violent resolution of conflicts.

.....

Exhibition prepared in 2014 by:
Religious Society of Friends (Quakers) in NSW
www.quakers.org.au

Design by ARMEDIA Pty Ltd