Comprehensive Hand Surgery Center is pleased to welcome

David W. Galpern, MD, FACS

Dr. David Galpern, hand surgeon, has recently opened the Comprehensive Hand Surgery Center. Dr. Galpern specializes in the treatment and care of patients with hand, wrist and forearm pain and injuries. A Brooklyn, NY native, he received a Bachelor's of Science in Human Physiology from Boston University. Following his undergrad degree, he returned to New York to receive his medical degree from SUNY Health and Science Center in Brooklyn, New York. He went on to complete residency at New York Methodist Hospital followed by his hand surgery fellowship at the Christine M. Kleinert Institute for Hand and Microsurgery in Louisville Kentucky. He continued his training as an international fellow in the Hand Surgery and Upper Limb Surgery Fellowship of the Princess Alexandra Hospital, University of Queensland in Australia.

Dr. Galpern is a parent of three children. In his spare time, Dr. Galpern enjoys spending time with his family and being active in community service. He enjoys traveling with his family as well. In addition to serving on the Academy's RYPE 'N RVA Leadership Team, he also serves on the boards of numerous philanthropic, outreach and educational organizations across the community.

He is board certified by the American Board of Surgery in both general as well as hand surgery. He looks forward to treating your patients' hand, wrist and forearm issues.
