Caddie
OFFICIAL SPONSOR

What must be designed?

A dwelling house that satisfy the latest criteria of the Department of Human Settlements for Subsidized Housing (Low Cost) on a site selected by the designer.

The design must communicate to the judges the following:

- Use of sustainable but not commonly used materials
- Ergonomics
- Individualism and uniqueness - not for mass production

What must be submitted to SAIAT Head Office?

- Brief explanation why the designer regards himself/herself as "historically disadvantaged"
- Complete design documentation satisfying the criteria set by the Department of Human Settlements and complying with the NBR.
- Costing

The research into the requirements of the Department of Human Settlements and the compliance with the NBR forms part of the competition and entries not fulfilling these requirements will be disqualified.

PRIZES TO THE VALUE OF R15 000 EACH WILL BE AWARDED TO THE BEST ENTRIES RECEIVED.
