ABOUT US
The Society for Investigative Dermatology was born out of a vision to serve a segment of science previously unrepresented by the medical societies of the United States: Investigative Dermatology. The founders saw a need for an organization with a devotion to cutaneous investigation, rather than clinical work, and to promote investigative dermatology to a fully respected position among the medical specialties. In tandem with the establishment of the society, they sought to develop a new scientific journal that would act as a singular resource for investigative work in cutaneous biology. Previously, this research had been scattered among the non-dermatology journals and had largely been completed outside the specialty of investigative dermatology. This vision was realized when the SID was founded, by laws were adopted and a board of nine directors was appointed on June 10, 1937 at the Hotel Dennis in Atlantic City, New Jersey. The Journal of Investigative Dermatology (JID) was launched, with Marion B. Sulzberger as its first editor, and the first Annual Meeting was held in April 1938 in New York City.

Portland is a city that’s known for being a little bit “different.” In fact, one of the unofficial mottos, displayed on a large mural near the famous 24-hour Voodoo Doughnut, is “Keep Portland Weird.” Known for being environmentally conscious, we’re confident you’ll be delighted by what sets this “Green” city apart.

Portland is home to the nation’s favorite airport, an efficient light rail system and pedestrian-friendly city blocks — uncommon qualities that are easy to get used to. Portland International Airport (PDX) has been recognized by Travel and Leisure Magazine Readers Survey as America’s Best Airport since 2013. PDX is serviced by 17 airline carriers, is accessible from cities throughout the US, and has non-stop flights from Frankfurt, Amsterdam, and Tokyo. The MAX Light Rail Service will offer SID Meeting attendees complimentary transportation from the downtown hotels to the Convention Center (venue) and surrounding area stops.

With no sales tax, Portland is a haven for shoppers. You’ll find retailers large and small, international and indie within easy reach of downtown hotels. Home to international businesses like Nike, Adidas, Columbia Sportswear, and local favorites like Powell’s Books. There is something for everyone at the many downtown retail stores.

There is also a staggering selection of food and drink options in Portland from hundreds of inexpensive food carts all over town to nationally acclaimed chef-driven restaurants. It’s hard to get a bad meal in Portland. Thirsty? Portland has more craft breweries than any other city on earth (more than 60) and tons of annual beer fests, bottle shops, brew ‘n’ view movie theaters and more. It’s no wonder it is called “Beervana.” What’s more, Portland is home to several micro distilleries and more than a dozen urban wineries — not to mention the myriad of coffee roasters or the world-class vineyards of the Willamette Valley wine country.

To counteract all those delicious meals, Portlanders love to burn calories in the great outdoors. Hit the pavement on more than 100 miles of trails and paths, see Portland by bicycle or take a hike in one of the country’s largest urban forests. Within two hours of downtown, you can visit the Oregon Coast beaches, Mount Hood ski resorts or Columbia River Gorge waterfalls. Portland is also the center of the comic book universe with three comic publishers, two national conventions and hundreds of working illustrators and writers.

We hope you join us this April in Portland for what is sure to be an exciting and informative meeting.

SPECIAL LECTURES

ALBERT M. KLIĞMAN/PHILLIP FROST LEADERSHIP LECTURE

TBD

The Albert M. Kligman/Phillip Frost Leadership Lecture Award was established in 2007 to recognize outstanding individuals who have made significant contributions to the understanding of structure and function of skin within the previous five years. This award is made possible through the generosity of Dr. Phillip Frost. A $25,000 honorarium accompanies the award.

EUGENE M. FARBER LECTURE

Jonathan Barker, MD
St John’s Institute of Dermatology,
King’s College
London, UK

“We From Genetic Discovery To Personalised Outcomes In Psoriasis”

Jonathan Barker is Professor of Medical Dermatology and Academic Head of Department at St John’s Institute of Dermatology, King’s College London, where he also obtained his MD. He is Co-Director of the Skin Therapy Research Unit and the Psoriasis Service at the Institute, a large team that provides care for patients with severe disease. His research interests extend from genetic discovery through to clinical outcome measurement. As such he is a key investigator in international consortia aiming to map psoriasis susceptibility genes and heads the International Psoriasis Council (IPC) exome consortium. He is deputy director of a multi-centre MRC stratified medicine programme in psoriasis outcomes to biologic therapy (PSORT) and heads its genetics working group.

NAOMI M. KANOF LECTURE

James Bradner, MD
Novartis Institutes of BioMedical Research
Cambridge, MA

TBD

James (Jay) E. Bradner, M.D. is President of the Novartis Institutes for BioMedical Research (NIBR) and a member of the Executive Committee of Novartis. Prior to joining Novartis Dr. Bradner served on the research faculty of Harvard Medical School and as an attending physician in stem cell transplantation within the Department of Medical Oncology at the Dana-Farber Cancer Institute. The research focus of the Bradner laboratory has been the study of BET bromodomain proteins and their function in gene control, innovating chemical probes and investigational drugs to study and treat cancer. Dr. Bradner is a co-founder of five biotechnology companies and has co-authored more than 150 scientific publications and 30 United States patent applications. Dr. Bradner is a graduate of Harvard University and the University of Chicago Medical School. He completed residency in Medicine at Brigham & Women’s Hospital, fellowship in Medical Oncology and Hematology at the Dana-Farber Cancer Institute and postdoctoral training in chemistry and chemical biology at Harvard University (Prof. Stuart Schreiber).

HERMAN BEERMAN LECTURE

Alan J. Korman, PhD
Vice President of Immuno-Oncology Discovery
Bristol-Myers Squibb
Redwood City, CA

“How To Make Antibodies for Tumor Immunotherapy”

Alan J. Korman received his Ph.D. degree from Harvard University (Cambridge, Massachusetts, USA) in 1984 and was a Whitehead Fellow at the Whitehead Institute, Massachusetts Institute of Technology (Cambridge, Massachusetts, USA) from 1984 to 1989. He was also a Chargé de Recherche at the Institut Pasteur (Paris, France) from 1990 to 1993. He has worked in the biotechnology and pharmaceutical industry since 1993 and is currently Vice President of Immuno-Oncology Discovery at Bristol-Myers Squibb (Redwood City, California, USA). He led the preclinical development of the FDA approved checkpoint inhibitor antibodies, ipilimumab (anti-CTLA-4) and nivolumab (anti-PD-1), as well as their combination for the treatment of cancer.

WILLIAM MONTAGNA LECTURE

Sarah Millar, PhD
University of Pennsylvania
Philadelphia, PA

“We From Morphogenesis to Disease: A Wnt’sers Tale”

Sarah Millar, PhD is internationally recognized as a leading researcher in epithelial development, stem cells and regeneration and has over 60 publications in leading peer-reviewed journals. She received her B.A. in Biochemistry from Cambridge University (UK) in 1982 and her PhD in Molecular Biology from University of London in 1987. Her research group has made seminal discoveries on the roles of Wnt inter-cellular signaling in epithelial development and regeneration. They also identified key roles for mRNAs in epidermal development and regeneration, and essential requirements for histone deacetylases in epidermal stem cell proliferation and survival. Their current research directions include elucidating the functions of Wnt ligands and their receptors, and chromatin repressive complexes, in the development and regeneration of skin, hair follicles, mammary glands and teeth. They are also developing genetic mouse models for human ectodermal dysplasias to delineate disease mechanisms and test potential therapeutic approaches.

JULIUS STONE LECTURE

Bruce Beutler, MD
UT Southwestern Medical Center
Dallas, TX

“Automated Discovery of Genetic Diseases by Saturation Mutagenesis in Mice”

Bruce Beutler, MD, discovered an important family of receptors that allow mammals to sense infections when they occur, triggering a powerful inflammatory response. For this work he received the 2011 Nobel Prize in Physiology or Medicine. Beutler received his undergraduate degree from the University of California at San Diego in 1976, and his MD degree from the University of Chicago in 1981. After two years of residency at the University of Texas Southwestern Medical Center, he became a postdoctoral fellow and then an Assistant Professor at the Rockefeller University (1983-1986), where he isolated mouse tumor necrosis factor (TNF), and was the first to recognize TNF as a key executor of the inflammatory response. Returning to Dallas in 1986 as an HHMI investigator, he designed recombinant inhibitors of TNF that are widely used in the treatment of rheumatoid arthritis and other inflammatory diseases. Moving in 2000 to the Scripps Research Institute, Beutler developed the largest mouse mutagenesis program in the world, and applied a forward genetic approach to decipher the signaling pathways activated by TLRs. He also identified many other molecules with non-redundant function in the immune response. Beutler is currently a Regental Professor and Director of the Center for Genetics of Host Defense at the University of Texas Southwestern Medical Center. He also holds the Raymond and Ellen Willie Distinguished Chair in Cancer Research in honor of Laverne and Raymond Willie, Sr.
PLENARY LECTURE #1

“Chimeric Immunoreceptor T cells for Pemphigus: Fighting Autoimmunity with Immunity”

Aimee Payne, MD/PhD
University of Pennsylvania
Philadelphia, PA

Dr. Payne is an Albert M. Kligman Associate Professor of Dermatology at University of Pennsylvania. She obtained her B.S. in Biology from Stanford University and received her MD/PhD (Molecular and Cellular Biology) Degrees from Washington University School of Medicine in St. Louis. Her career interest has been in pemphigus: diagnosing and treating patients with this potentially fatal autoimmune disease, and performing research to understand what causes disease, with the goal of improving therapy. Her laboratory has contributed to 5 major areas of investigation: 1) cloning and characterization of B-cell repertoires to understand how autoimmunity occurs in pemphigus, a model autoantibody-mediated skin blistering disease; 2) cell biologic studies to understand mechanisms for loss of cell adhesion; 3) collaborative research to advance clinical trials in autoimmune blistering disease; 4) clinical studies to better understand current diagnostic tests and therapies; and 5) translational research to develop novel targeted therapies. In addition to her research activities, she is a board certified dermatologist with a special focus on autoimmune blistering skin diseases.

PLENARY LECTURE #2

“Identification of Hair Shaft Progenitors that Create a Niche for Hair Pigmentation and Graying”

Lu Le, MD/PhD
UT Southwestern Medical Center
Dallas, TX

Dr. Le is a Dermatologist with a scientific focus on neural-crest derived tissue development, regeneration and tumorigenesis, in particular the biology of neurofibromatosis. He graduated from the Medical Scientist Training Program at UCLA and completed residency training in Dermatology and a postdoctoral fellowship in Cancer Biology from UT Southwestern Medical Center. He is currently an Associate Professor and holds the Thomas L. Shield, M.D. Professorship in Dermatology at UT Southwestern.

PLENARY LECTURE #3

“Border Patrol and Melanoma: Keeping the Peace at a Cost?”

Niroshana Anandasabapathy, MD/PhD
Brigham and Women’s Hospital
Boston, MA

Dr. Niroshana Anandasabapathy is an investigative physician scientist- formally trained in clinical translation, cancer biology, immunology and Dermatology. She attended medical school at Stanford University and completed her residency at NYU Medical Center. Her research program broadly investigates how mechanisms of tissue homeostasis in peripheral tissues such as skin lead to tumor immune escape of skin cancers. She is a faculty member of the BWH Department of Dermatology post-doctoral scholarship oversight committee, the Harvard Stem Cell Institute, and Harvard Program in Immunology.

PLENARY LECTURE #4

“3D Bioprinting-An Emerging Paradigm in Tissue Engineering”

Pankaj Karande, PhD
Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute
Troy, NY

Dr. Karande joined Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute in 2008 as an Assistant Professor in the Chemical and Biological Engineering Department. Before coming to Rensselaer, Dr. Karande was the Anna Fuller Postdoctoral Fellow in Molecular Oncology (2006-2008) at the Center for Cancer Research at Massachusetts Institute of Technology. He received his Ph.D. at University of California, Santa Barbara (2006) in the area of transdermal drug delivery. His doctoral work at Santa Barbara focused on rational and combinatorial design of permeation enhancers for the delivery of proteins and polypeptides across the skin. Dr. Karande holds several patents in the area of transdermal formulation design, drug delivery formulations, development of high-throughput screening platforms, and novel drug delivery systems. His current research interests include 3D Biofabrication of organs and tissues, and novel drug delivery formulations.
ABSTRACT SUBMISSION INFORMATION

Online submission of abstracts opened on October 18, 2016 and closes on January 5, 2017 at 9:00 am EST. www.tinyurl.com/sid2017

RULES AND REGULATIONS

Only one paper or poster may be read or presented by the same author at the Meeting, although a presenter may be a co-author of any number of papers. The material must not have been published prior to submission of the abstract or presented at any national meeting prior to the date of presentation at the SID Annual Meeting. Simultaneous submission of the same abstract to other meetings is prohibited.

PUBLICATION OF ABSTRACTS

All abstracts will be published in the May 2017 issue of the Journal of Investigative Dermatology (JID). The abstracts will also be available via links on the SID website approximately early April 2017. Hard copies of the Program Book will be available at the meeting. Abstract acceptance notification will be sent the week of February 6, 2017.

ABSTRACT FEE AND AUTHOR INFORMATION

The publication/processing fee is $50 US and must be paid via the internet at the time of submission.

PRESENTATION

The SID Committee on Scientific Programs reviews all abstracts without knowing the identity of authors. All abstracts, including those selected for oral presentation, must be presented as posters.

NOTES ABOUT 2017 ABSTRACTS

• Unless indicated by initiating an opt-out, all abstract submissions to the 2017 Annual Meeting will be considered for Oral Presentation.
• Submitters must choose both a primary category for their abstract, as well as a secondary category. Doing so will help the Scientific Program Committee have the flexibility (if needed) to put together the best possible meeting program.
• SID will have an electronic poster viewing system available as a companion piece to physical posters. Updates will be posted as they become available on the SID website.

TRAVEL FELLOWSHIP AWARDS

The Albert M. Kligman Fellowship Fund was established in 1995 to support young investigators traveling to the SID’s Annual Meeting to present scientific work. Submit your completed application (as one PDF file) between Tuesday, October 18, 2016, and Thursday, January 5, 2017 at 9:00 am EST, via the Abstract Submission website www.tinyurl.com/sid2017. Step 5 of the submission process is the venue to upload your materials for consideration. For application guidelines and application form, go to the SID website 2017 Annual Meeting page at www.sidnet.org.

ABSTRACT CATEGORIES FOR THE 2017 SID ANNUAL MEETING

Adaptive and Autoimmunity – Studies of adaptive immune responses involving T and B lymphocytes, dendritic cells, other antigen presenting cells, and antigen processing and presentation; Basic and pre-clinical experimental studies focused on autoimmunity

Carcinogenesis and Cancer Genetics – Studies on the genetics and other causes of cancer as well as mechanisms relevant to metastasis (Abstracts on therapeutics and clinical trials in skin cancer should be submitted to Clinical Research: Pathophysiology and Therapeutics)

Clinical Research – Epidemiology of skin diseases

Clinical Research: Patient Outcomes Research – Includes meta-analysis of interventional trials, and patient outcomes research

Clinical Research: Pathophysiology and Therapeutics – Including studies involving human tissue and human cells that furthers our understanding of skin disease

Epidermal Structure and Barrier Function – Research on the components or regulation of keratinocyte proliferation, differentiation, including epidermal barrier function

Genetic Disease, Gene Regulation and Gene Therapy – Studies on cutaneous gene expression and genetic diseases including gene therapy (Cancer-related genetic studies are more appropriate for Carcinogenesis and Cancer Genetics)

Growth Factors, Cell Adhesion and Matrix Biology – Studies on growth factors and the interactions of cells with their local cellular and extracellular environment that affect signaling, adhesion, migration and development

Innate Immunity, Microbiology, Inflammation – Studies of cells, receptors and effector molecules of the innate immune response; studies on skin microbes and infectious processes of the skin

Pharmacology and Drug Development – Basic and preclinical studies aimed at developing therapeutics, elucidating their mechanisms of action, and identifying biomarkers of drug activity

Photobiology – Studies on biological, biochemical, and molecular responses to ultraviolet radiation in cells, animals and humans

Pigmentation and Melanoma – Studies on all aspects of cutaneous and extracutaneous pigmentation; molecular cellular and biological facets of melanoma. (Genetic studies on melanoma should be considered for the category Carcinogenesis and Cancer Genetics)

Skin and Hair Developmental Biology – Studies on the hair follicle, sebaceous gland, and other skin appendages; developmental biology of skin and hair; roles of stem cells in pre and post-natal growth and development

Tissue Regeneration and Wound Healing – Wound healing and regeneration studies; processes/signaling that regulate vascular development and angiogenesis; interactions between different skin components (epithelial cells, dermal cells, nerves, vasculature, melanocytes, fat) in homeostasis and regeneration
NETWORKING & SOCIAL EVENTS

The Annual Meeting will feature networking and social events that will give attendees the opportunity to interact with colleagues. Enjoy the following events, make new professional connections, and catch up with old friends.

WELCOME RECEPTION
On April 26, 2017 from 7:00 pm - 8:30 pm, there will be a Welcome Reception to kick off the Annual Meeting. All attendees are invited to gather for drinks and light snacks, and to mingle with colleagues at the Oregon Convention Center immediately following the last session of the day.

SOCIAL EVENT
Join us on Thursday, April 27, 2017 from 6:30 pm - 10:30 pm at the World Trade Center (WTC) Portland. Located on the waterfront in downtown Portland, WTC is regarded as one of the city’s most elegant and spacious venues. This unique outdoor space is well known for providing a stunning atmosphere, elegant backdrop and breathtaking views. On hand will be some of Portland’s most popular food trucks, as well as area craft beer and regional Oregon wines to enjoy! More information will be available on the SID website in the coming months under the Annual Meeting tab of the site.

TICKETED EVENT: PRE-REGISTRATION REQUIRED

TRAINEE/FACULTY BREAKFAST
SID presents a Trainee/Faculty Breakfast - small group discussions in which senior and junior faculty Residents, Pre-Doctoral Students and Post-Doctoral Fellows - discuss issues in an informal atmosphere. These gatherings provide an opportunity to talk informally about subject matters of interest including research opportunities in dermatology, life in academia or how to combine clinical work with research. Join us Thursday, April 27, 2017, 7:00 am - 8:00 am.

TICKETED EVENT: PRE-REGISTRATION REQUIRED

MINISYMPOSIA MIXERS
Once again, we plan to offer Q & A after the traditional concurrent minisymposia sessions during the SID Annual Meeting. The number of talks during each session have been reduced (from 15 to 12) and the extra time will be devoted to having an additional question and answer session time with all the speakers, moderators, and special guests in a roundtable atmosphere. This “after-session” will be led by the session moderators with snacks and refreshments for all in attendance.

*Companion registration only allows for access to the Welcome Reception. No other events will allow for companion participation unless the event is a separately-ticketed event.

To receive the early/discounted registration fee, register online at www.sidnet.org in the Annual Meeting section. Registrations will be accepted by the SID until April 14, 2017, after which you must register on-site in Portland. On-site registration will take place at the SID registration counter in the Oregon Convention Center beginning April 26, 2017.

Residents, Post-Doctoral Fellows, and Pre-Doctoral Students are invited to attend the Meeting and submit abstracts for review. SID Residents and Post-Doctoral Fellows Members receive a discounted registration rate of $360 on or before March 12, 2017 and $460 on or after March 13, 2017. Residents and Post-Doctoral Fellow Non-Members receive a discounted registration rate of $435 on or before March 12, 2017 and $535 and Pre-Doctoral Students receive a discounted rate of $180. To receive these subsidized rates, Non-Member Residents, Post-Doctoral Fellows and Pre-Doctoral Students must mail or fax to the SID office a letter from their Department Chair or Program Director verifying their status (see box at the bottom of page 11 for contact information). Letters must be signed and on official University/institution letterhead. Registrations will not be processed until all documentation is received. If registering on-site, please bring this required documentation with you or you will be charged regular on-site registration rates.

If you are a current SID Resident/Post-Doctoral Fellow, a verification letter is not required. A complete list is available at www.sidnet.org/2017annualmeeting.

All cancellations and changes to Annual Meeting registration must be made in writing to the SID office, by March 12, 2017. Cancellations made after March 12, 2017 will not receive a refund. No exceptions can be made. Refunds are issued only after the Meeting, less a $100 administrative fee. If registering online, please click the submit button only once. Duplicate registration forms may result in your credit card being charged twice. If you feel a problem in the online submission platform has occurred and you think that you have been charged multiple times, please contact the SID administrative office at 216.579.9300. A confirmation letter will be sent within two weeks. If you do not receive a confirmation after two weeks, please contact the SID office at 216.579.9300 or at meetings@sidnet.org. Complete details regarding the registration fees and the Annual Meeting can be found on the SID website at www.sidnet.org/2017annualmeeting.
VENUE INFORMATION

OREGON CONVENTION CENTER
777 NE Martin Luther King, Jr. Blvd
Portland, Oregon 97232
503.235.7575

Built with sustainability in mind, the Oregon Convention Center (OCC) has long held a leadership role in green building and other environmentally responsible business practices. In 2004, they were the first convention center to earn the U.S. Green Building Council’s Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design for Existing Buildings certification. In 2008, the facility was recertified at the Silver level. In 2014, they reached their greatest milestone yet by earning LEED Platinum, the highest level of certification.

The OCC operates with a pledge to continually reduce their environmental footprint, and to educate staff, clients and visitors on the importance of working together toward a sustainable future. Along with Travel Portland, Metro, the City of Portland and its residents, the OCC has helped to establish Portland’s national reputation as a premier destination for green meetings and events.

HOTEL INFORMATION

The SID has contracted two hotels in Portland to provide rooming for 2017 Annual Meeting Attendees, the Hilton Portland & Executive Towers and the Doubletree by Hilton Hotel Portland. There is a difference in locations of the hotel to the meeting venue (Oregon Convention Center) and amount of rooms available that you should be made aware of.

Rooms Available:
The Hilton Portland is the largest hotel in Portland, is located in the heart of downtown Portland, and will serve as the Headquarter Hotel for the 2017 Annual Meeting. The SID has reserved 1,990 room nights at this property.

The Doubletree Hotel is located closer to the meeting venue, and the SID has reserved 340 rooms at this property. This property is much smaller than the downtown Hilton.

Distance to the Meeting Venue:
The Hilton is about 1.5 miles southwest of the Convention Center and the SID has arranged for complimentary transportation from the hotel to the Convention Center via Portland’s MAX Light Rail Service. There is a stop one block away that drops off in front of the Convention Center. The ride takes an estimated 8-10 minutes.

The Doubletree hotel is located about a 3 block walking distance from the Convention Center.

Hotel and Surrounding Amenities:
As previously mentioned, the Hilton is located in the downtown area and is surrounded by restaurants, shopping, and other forms of entertainment.

The Doubletree is also close by to the Lloyd Center Shopping Mall and also provides access to the Max Light Rail Service.

Please keep the differences in the two properties in mind when you book your rooms when attending the 2017 SID Annual Meeting.

Hilton Portland

Hilton Portland & Executive Tower comprises two buildings: the landmark Hilton Portland and the elegant Executive Tower. Set in the heart of downtown, it is surrounded by restaurants, entertainment and tax-free shopping. A block away, the MAX Light Rail system makes it easy to explore the city and beyond. Take advantage of the inspired dining venues, and fantastic Hilton Athletic Club amenities.

Exciting Dining
The gastropub, HopCity Tavern, serves a menu created with an emphasis on locally produced fare; supporting 16 local farmers, creameries, butchers and bakers, and seven area microbreweries. Sip cocktails in Porto Terra Lounge, and savor dishes from northern Italy in Porto Terra Tuscan Grill & Bar.

Leisure and Recreation
Enjoy complimentary access to the fitness room and lap pool in the Executive Tower. Work out using state-of-the-art equipment or swim lengths of the waveless pool. Just 5 blocks from the hotel are jogging paths along Waterfront Park on the banks of the Willamette River.

Doubletree by Hilton Hotel Portland

No portion of the booth or signage may be altered or added to the ceiling, exhibit hall. Electrical and telephone lines are available at all booth locations and must be contracted through show management and convention center. SID Management reserves the right to insist on a properly constructed and operated display in the interest of all participating exhibitors. Display not conforming to SID Management specifications and limitations may be dismantled or modified, at cost to the exhibitor, at the sole discretion of SID Management.

d. Music Licensing: Any tenant using copyrighted music during the SID's Annual Meeting, whether within the exhibit area, in house, in a related exhibit, or at the show venue, must be in full compliance with the copyright law and the rules and regulations of the Copyright Division. The software and hardware used must conform to the provisions of the copyright law and the rules and regulations of the Copyright Division.

6. OPERATION OF EXHIBITS:

a. Selling: Exhibitors are not permitted to sell goods, provide samples, discuss, explain and demonstrate products or services, but may not make any sales which result in the direct exchange of monies or the use of credit cards. No exceptions. However, exhibitors may take orders for products/services for future delivery.

b. Raffles, Lotteries: No exhibitor may sponsor or conduct any raffles, lotteries or games of chance.

c. Noise around: Musical equipment, audio equipment, and other noise-making devices or amplifying equipment shall be operated only at a level which will not interfere with other exhibitors. SID Management shall be the sole judge of which constitutes appropriate sound levels.

d. Music Licensing: Any tenant using copyrighted music during the SID’s Annual Meeting, whether within the exhibit area, in house, in a related exhibit, or at the show venue, must be in full compliance with the copyright law and the rules and regulations of the Copyright Division. The software and hardware used must conform to the provisions of the copyright law and the rules and regulations of the Copyright Division.
Portland Area Attractions

Powell’s City of Books
From humble storefront beginnings in 1971, Powell’s has grown into a Portland landmark and one of the world’s great bookstores. Covering an entire city block, Powell’s City of Books contains more than 1.5 million books in 3,500 different sections. Get a cup of joe at the in-store coffee shop, grab a map to the nine color-coded rooms, and lose yourself in the largest used and new bookstore on Earth.

Columbia River Gorge
Enjoy superb outdoor recreation, craft beer and dozens of waterfalls in the gorge. Starting just 30 miles east of Portland, the Columbia River Gorge National Scenic Area offers amazing vistas, hiking trails, more than 90 waterfalls and world-class windsurfing.

Wine Country
A short drive from the city, the Willamette Valley wows with lush scenery and delectable wines. Less than an hour from Portland, the gorgeous Willamette Valley boasts more than 250 wineries, quaint towns and rolling farmland ripe for touring.

International Rose Test Garden
Portland’s International Rose Test Garden is the oldest official continuously operated public rose test garden in the United States. Each year hundreds of thousands of visitors from around the world enjoy the sights and scents of the gardens. The garden’s spectacular views and more than 8,000 roses make it one of the city’s most notable signature landmarks. Located in Washington Park. The best rose-viewing months are May-September.

Mount Hood
Located 90 minutes from Portland, Oregon’s tallest peak offers four seasons of fun. Mount Hood offers scenic recreation ranging from camping, hiking and fishing to nearly year-round skiing.

Portland Japanese Garden
In the scenic hills above Washington Park, the Japanese Garden is a haven of tranquil beauty which has been proclaimed one of the most authentic Japanese gardens outside of Japan. Encompassing 5.5 acres and five separate garden styles, the garden includes an authentic Japanese Tea House, meandering streams, intimate walkways and an unsurpassed view of Mount Hood. Guided tours are included with cost of admission.

Voodoo Doughnut
Located in Old Town’s popular nightlife district, Voodoo Doughnut is one of the city’s most unusual and delicious culinary destinations. The doughnuts, topped with creative ingredients such as bacon, Captain Crunch and Oreos, are almost as fun to look at as they are to eat. Locals and visitors line up 24 hours a day for what may be the most innovative doughnuts in the world. Be prepared for adorable mustached faces to look up at you from your food (mirroring the many bearded young men you’ll encounter biking around Portland).

Lan Su Chinese Garden
A year-round wonder, the Lan Su Chinese Garden is an authentically built Ming Dynasty style garden. Covered walkways, bridges, pavilions and a richly planted landscape frame a picturesque lake in this urban oasis built by artisans from Portland’s sister city of Suzhou. Public and audio tours are available, and the garden’s teahouse serves light snacks and traditional teas. Lan Su hosts many events, including a two-week Chinese New Year celebration and summer concerts.

TAKE A TOUR OF THE AREA!
