

Act Now For $500 Early Registration Discount To 2018 RLF

With the holiday season right around the corner, registration for 2018 Regional Leadership Forum (RLF) programs is well underway – and deadlines for $500 “early bird” discounts are fast approaching. Why not register for the 2018 RLF before getting caught up in the year-end festivities?

“Many organizations are wrapping up 2017 expenditures and planning for next year’s new budget allocations, so now is a great time for companies to consider the RLF for their top talent,” said Phil Zwieg, RLF Director. “Not only do SIM members receive a $600 discount per participant, but SIM members can also receive an additional $500 discount per participant if registration is paid by the “early bird” deadline.”

Non-SIM members may also take advantage of the $500 early registration discount, said Zwieg.

The $500 discount deadlines vary by RLF program location. The 2018 deadlines are:

- December 31, 2017 for the Mid-Atlantic (Baltimore / Philadelphia), Midwest (Chicago), Northeast (Boston), New York Metro, Pacific Northwest (Seattle / Portland), and Pacific Southwest (Los Angeles) programs
- February 1, 2018 for the Northeast (Hartford) and Southeast (St. Petersburg, FL) programs

SIM’s RLF program takes high-potential individuals and helps them develop their own authentic leadership style and the emotional intelligence, personal strengths, and core competencies that define true leaders.

Register now for the 2018 RLF program.