

Virginia Woods Nomination Rubric

Candidate:

Description:

Awarded as an ongoing recognition of Virginia Woods' contribution to science education in general, and to the Science Teachers Association of Texas in particular. It is the highest award STAT can bestow upon a member for contributions to science education. Winner will receive a plaque, an honorarium of $1,000, and 2 tickets to the STAT VIP Reception. Award will be presented at the CAST Opening Ceremony.

Required Materials:

- * Nomination form
- * Letter of nomination
- * Two to five letters of support
- * Resume or curriculum vitae

Requirements:

A long standing member of STAT, minimum of 20 years.

		4 Points		2 Points		0 Points
1	Materials submitted in required format	All materials were submitted correctly.		Most materials were submitted correctly.		Materials were not submitted correctly.
2	Record of leadership and service in STAT (>20 years)	Outstanding leadership and service in STAT Consistent evidence of leadership in science education is cited.		Leadership and service in STAT		No significant evidence of leadership and service to STAT
3	Contributions to the improvement of science curriculum	Outstanding contributions to the improvement of science curriculum through various means.		Contributions made to the improvements of science curriculum.		No significant evidence made to the improvement of science curriculum.
4	Scholarly writing in the field of science education	Outstanding contributions made in the field of science education through publications in scholarly articles, STATellite, and other.		Contributions made in the field of science education through publications. in scholarly articles, STATellite, and other.		No significant evidence made in the field of science education.
5	Contributing to STAT and other professional science organizationst	Substantial evidence of contributions to STAT and other professional organizations are cited.		A few examples of contributions to STAT and other professional organizations are cited.		No significant evidence of contributions to STAT or other professional contributions is cited.
		Column Total	0	Column Total	0	Column Total	0
						Candidate Total	0

