Texas Business Hall of Fame

Inductee Nomination Form

The Texas Business Hall of Fame Foundation was created to focus awareness on the positive achievements made by outstanding business leaders and to honor their contributions to their community and their state.

Each year the Texas Business Hall of Fame Foundation selects individuals, living or deceased, who have made outstanding contributions to the development of a healthy, dynamic environment in Texas and to the state's overall economic well-being. Such men or women may be entrepreneurs, innovative business managers, and inventors. An Honoree's accomplishments may have been felt state wide or in a single community. Civic and/or philanthropic activities are relevant but are not a determining factor in selection.

If you know or are aware of an individual who merits this recognition, please complete the form below and return it to the Texas Business Hall of Fame Foundation.
