

Steven P. Sellars, MBA

Steve Sellars is the CEO of Premier Health. Premier Health owns and operates 45 urgent care centers through multiple health system joint-venture partnerships and provides management services and support for all affiliated organizations.

Steve has 25+ years of healthcare management experience, including eight years in the managed care industry and five years with one of the largest health systems in the Gulf South. Steve has worked exclusively in urgent care management since 2004, growing Premier Health by more than 500% since 2010. His background includes significant executive management experience with hospitals, physician groups, and other healthcare organizations, and extensive experience in urgent care practice management, site selection, practice expansion, managed care contract negotiations, and strategic planning and development.

Premier Health's affiliates include Our Lady of the Lake Regional Medical Center, Our Lady of Lourdes Regional Medical Center, St. Elizabeth Hospital, St. Francis Medical Center, Rapides Regional Medical Center, Indiana University Health System, St. Vincent's Health System, LSU Health Urgent Care, LCMC Health, and Seton Medical Center Harker Heights.

Steve was the 2016-2017 Board President of the Urgent Care Association of America (UCAOA) and has served as UCAOA Secretary and Chair of the Education Committee. Steve is the Vice-Chair of the Baton Rouge Primary Care Collaborative, a board member for a multi-site rehabilitation company, a member of the Medical Group Management Association, and an adjunct faculty member at Our Lady of the Lake College. Steve received a B.S. and M.B.A. from Louisiana State University in Baton Rouge, Louisiana.
