

FEBRUARY FRIDAY MORNING BREAKFAST
February 26, 2016
SPEAKER

Jeff Eschliman, Vice President of Operations
Maracay Homes

Jeff Eschliman, a Maracay Homes team member for more than 20 years, has extensive experience in residential production home building throughout Arizona. An industry veteran, he has held numerous titles throughout his career, including superintendent, director of construction and now his current position as vice president of operations. His strong leadership skills and industry expertise have helped Maracay greatly increase its inventory and remain one of Arizona's leading homebuilders.

A military veteran, Eschliman is a graduate of the United States Army Infantry School in Fort Benning. Active in the local home building industry, he is a member of the National Association of Home Builders, Southern Arizona Home Builders Association and Home Builders Association of Central Arizona.