

FEBRUARY FRIDAY MORNING BREAKFAST

February 26, 2016

SPEAKER

Brad Nelson, Project Superintendent, Hensel Phelps

Brad has been working in the construction industry for twenty years, joining Hensel Phelps seventeen years ago. Since then, he has worked in Cape Town, South Africa; Curacao and Berlin, Germany; giving his family of five children an opportunity to see many parts of the world.

After performing many aspects of construction, Brad has focused his career on the field. As a project superintendent, Brad supervises Hensel Phelps' self-performed work as well as all subcontractors work on his projects. He has a comprehensive understanding of workforce requirements for many scopes of work.

Since returning to Arizona eight years ago, his leadership has brought success to many local projects including City North, Phoenix Sky Harbor Sky Train Phase 1 and the University of Arizona Cancer Center. He has followed the trends of the local workforce and is pleased to be here today to participate in this discussion.
