

CRC Executive Director Job Advertisement:

The Commonwealth Regional Council (CRC) is seeking an Executive Director to lead the organization. Responsibilities: The Executive Director leads the work of the CRC, providing leadership and support to both the CRC and to staff. This position will develop relationships with localities and community stakeholders that initiate and maintain regional programs and revenue sources for the CRC. Under the general direction of the CRC Board, this position will promote positive and sustainable local government cooperation throughout the area of its membership. The Director, in consultation and collaboration with the CRC Board, shall dedicate him/herself to originating, identifying, and capitalizing on opportunities to form, facilitate, and enhance local and regional partnerships. Please refer to the CRC website to obtain a more detailed job description at - virginiasheartland.org (Latest News). Salary will be commensurate with experience and qualifications. Submit resume' and cover letter with employment history, salary history, and work references to CRC Executive Director Search Committee, P.O. Box P, Farmville, VA 23901 (subject line – CRC Executive Director). Deadline for submission is 5 p.m., August 30, 2017. The CRC is an EOE.